

The children of
Newbold J. (NJ) and Elizabeth Ann Beckner Cannon

Grandchildren of Newbold and Unicy Bounds Cannon and Granchildren of Frederick and Mary Locke Beckner

November 10, 2023

Newbold J. NJ Cannon, b. 1/13/1809, presumably Bath County, KY; m. Elizabeth Ann Beckner, 1/15/1829, Fleming County, KY; d. 9/28/1866, Lewis County, MO; buried in Wyaconda Baptist Church Cemetery, Canton Twp., Lewis County, MO.

Elizabeth Ann Beckner Cannon, b. 1809/11, Fleming County, KY; m. Newbold J. NJ Cannon 1/15/1829, Fleming County, KY; d. 9/17/1870, Clark County or Lewis County, MO; buried in Wyaconda Baptist Church Cemetery, Canton Twp., Lewis County, MO.

I had found a list of children on worldconnect for Newbold J and Elizabeth, that began with Eunice Amanthus Cannon, and I assumed that was all the children they had. When we were in Missouri in May 2008, talking to George Hoffman, descendant of John B. Cannon, brother of Newbold J. Cannon, he suggested that there were at least two other NJ Cannon daughters, specifically Frances, who married William M. Legg, and Martha, who married a Morrison. He based this on the heirs listed on Newbold's probate papers. William M. Legg, in fact, is made his executor. I suggested that perhaps there is another daughter, one who would be the mother of Mary Thomas, who is listed on the 1860 census with Newbold J and Elizabeth. Because there are no names listed on the 1840 census, and the 1850 census for the family is missing, all we have to go on is the list of heirs, and marriage certificates for Frances, Martha and Mary Ann. Adding these women to the list would make sense with the information on the 1840 census, also. I feel these three women should be included in the list of children.

Apparently NJ died without a will. An Administrator's Bond was created October 23, 1866. In this document, William M. Legg, as 'Principal,' is directed to settle the affairs of Newbold J. Cannon.

"William M. Legg, administrator of the Estate of Newbold J. Cannon, deceased, being duly sworn, says that the said N.J. Cannon died intestate, and without leaving any will, at Lewis Co. Sep. A.D. 1866, leaving as his heirs, Elizabeth Ann wife of Decd Amanthus Herald Frances Legg William Cannon Charles Cannon Elizabeth Cannon in Lewis County Missouri & John Cannon Luther Cannon Illinois & Martha Morrison in Omahaw City."

Children of Newbold J NJ and Elizabeth Ann Beckner Cannon

1. Mary Ann Cannon Thomas, b. about 1830, Lewis County, MO; m. Benjamin Tolbert Thomas 11/5/1848, Lewis County, MO; d. prior to 1860 census, probably about 1850.
2. Eunice Amanthus Cannon Harrel, b. 3/21/1832, Lewis County, MO; m. Ephraim Harrel, 1/1/1856, Lewis County, MO; d. 1/11/1908, Ramona, Washington, OK; buried in Ramona Cemetery, Ramona, Washington, OK.
3. Martha Cannon Morrison, b. 7/14/1834 or 1835, Lewis County, MO; m. George R. Morrison, 8/25/1851, Lewis County, MO; d. 4/15/1904, Lewis County, MO; buried in Saint Patrick Cemetery, Saint Patrick, Clark, MO.

4. Frances Fannie Cannon Legg, b. about 1838, Lewis County, MO; m. William Madison Legg, 2/1/1855, Lewis County, MO; d. about 1879?, Lewis County, MO? TX?
5. William Kirkman Cannon, b. 12/11/1840, Canton Twp., Lewis County, MO; m. Mary Elizabeth Dixon, 1865; d. 12/29/1913, Hagansport Precinct, Franklin County, TX; buried in Cannon Family Cemetery, Franklin County, TX.
6. Martin Luther Cannon, b. 1/27/1843, Lewis County, MO; m. Aquilla Q.J. Reece, 6/8/1865, Monmouth, Warren, IL; d. 3/6/1926, Monmouth, Warren, IL; buried in Monmouth Cemetery, Monmouth, Warren, IL.
7. John N. Cannon, b. 3/1/1845, Lewis County, MO; m. Mary Catherine Reece, 10/21/1867, Monmouth, Warren, IL; d. 11/1/1933, Seattle, King, WA; cremation, per death cert.
8. Elizabeth Ann Lizzie Cannon Chewning, b. 10/4/1848, Lewis County, MO; m. Moses William Chewning, 9/5/1870, Clark County, MO; d. 5/7/1900, Union Twp., Clark County, MO; buried in Antioch Cemetery, Antioch, Clark, MO.
9. Charles Cannon, b. 5/5/1850, Clark County, MO (his obit says Kahoka); m. 1st Sarah J. Sadie Scott, 2/13/1873, Henderson County, IL; m. 2nd Fannie Belle Nixon Davis, 12/20/1898, Cameron, Clinton, MO; d. 4/26/1926, Lathrop, Clinton, MO; buried in Lathrop Cemetery, Lathrop, Clinton, MO.

NJ died in 1866; Elizabeth (called Betsy on some documents), Elizabeth (Lizzie) the daughter, and Charles are on the 1870 census with James Chewning in Clark County, MO. James Chewning, Moses' brother, is listed as single. Betsy 'keeps house.' The next census entry is for Moses Chewning, who lives with a family as a farm laborer.

The question is: what is the connection between the Chewnings and the Cannons that would have created this situation? Betsy Beckner Cannon is a widow, she has moved from where she has lived for several decades, in Lewis County, and has taken a position as housekeeper. Her eldest daughter, Eunice Amanthus Cannon Harrel (and her husband and two children) had been living with NJ and Elizabeth on the 1860 census. By 1870, NJ has died, Elizabeth (Betsy) and two children have moved in with the Chewnings. The other Cannon sons, William, Martin Luther (he went by Luther, apparently), and John, are also out of the area on the 1870 census. Both Martin and John have married Reese/Reece women in Warren County, IL, and are living in Monmouth in 1870. There are some mysteries here. Charles would soon follow.

What caused Luther and John to leave Missouri between 1860 and 1870? Whether the death of NJ Cannon in 1866 was the reason the sons moved to Illinois or not, I don't know, although I now know that Luther was in Monmouth by 1863, so his father's death wasn't the reason. Why Monmouth? They may have been aware that their cousins, George W., Henry C., and Johanna Beckner VanKirk, had moved there in 1851. George W. and Johanna were the son and daughter of their mother's brother, Abraham L. Beckner. See the section in the Beckner genealogy about George W. Beckner. Some of that information is included at this end of this narrative.

Elizabeth (Lizzie) remained in Clark County, MO, the rest of her life. She married Moses Chewning, her neighbor on the 1870 census, brother of the Chewning with whom she and her mother and brother were living in 1870.

Two of her children, Theodore and Spencer, would also move to Monmouth.

Mary Ann Cannon Thomas
Daughter of Newbold J NJ and Elizabeth Ann Beckner Cannon
Granddaughter of Newbold and Unicy Bounds Cannon and Frederick and Mary Locke Beckner

Nita Chewning confirmed our suspicions that Mary Ann Cannon was indeed the daughter of NJ and Elizabeth. In an email she sent me 6/23/2008, she says that Mary Ann Cannon was the eldest of the children:

I got the information today that MARY ANN CANNON was NEWBOLD CANNON Jr. eldest daughter, on the 1840 census she is being listed as being between 5 and 10. She died in MO. a few months after her daughter Mary Elizabeth Thomas was born, from the story that Jim Chewning's wife was told by her mother or grandmother in law. Mary Ann Cannon/Thomas's husband left the baby with his in laws and went to the gold country he was never heard from again. He was found on a CA. census married to another Mary who was born in AR. about 4 years or so before Mary Ann Cannon was born. Do not know this Mary's maiden name yet. When my friend finds the information, (she may have left it in WA.) where her home is. She called me from Montana today and we talked of this. She is to send me the rest of the information as soon as she gets it. She said that she may have it in Montana, but will have to look through her genealogy material.

and this:

From an email from Nita Chewning: Pam, I found this note in the files for Mary Ann Cannon. I don't have the address for this lady but will try to find her next time I go to OK.

"Nita,

I am enclosing the attachment again. Hope you can get it. If you don't I will send you what it has on it. The other family is Newbold and Elizabeth's daughter Unise Amanthus, her husband, Ephraim and their children. This is my husband's great grandparents.

We live in Oklahoma and she is buried about 12 miles from our house. In 1880, they are in McDonald County, Missouri and then they came to Oklahoma.

Martin and John Cannon both were in Illinois and married in 1870. Ephraim and Unise were still in Lewis County.

Tess Selby"

If this is correct, and Mary Ann was between 5 and 10 on that census, she was born between 1830 and 1835.

Marriage to Benjamin Tolbert Thomas, 11/5/1848

Mary Ann Cannon Thomas, marr cert

From rootsweb, I have the following:

Benjamin Tolbert Thomas, b. 1 Dec. 1825 in MO, Marriage: Mary Ann Cannon, b. about 1830 in MO, married 3 Nov. 1848 in Lewis Co., Missouri. Children: Mary E. Thomas, b. about 1850 in MO

1850 census, District 48, Lewis County, MO

Benj. F. Thomas, 25, farmer, b. in MO,
Mary Ann Thomas, 20. b. in MO
Mary E. Thomas, 5/12, b. in MO

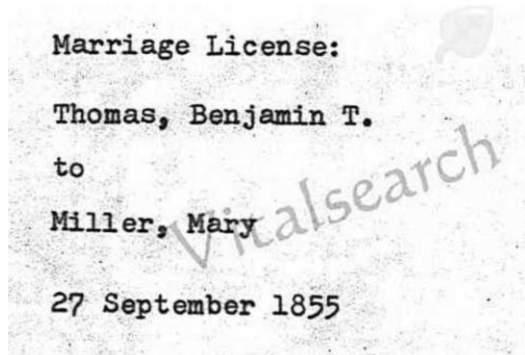

There is no slave schedule for the family.

Did Mary Ann d. between 1850 and 1860?

There is no census record in Lewis County, MO, for Benjamin and Mary Ann Cannon Thomas in 1860.

That year, there is a Mary Thomas, 10, living with Newbold J and Elizabeth Cannon. It would seem that Mary Thomas was the daughter of Mary Ann Cannon Thomas, and that perhaps Mary Ann has died. As Nita said above, she thinks that Benjamin moved to California and remarried. In the note from Nita below, she mentions Mary A. Fetters, but I think it is Mary Elizabeth Thomas that marries first a Fetters, then James Madison Chewing.

There is a marriage cert for a Benjamin T. Thomas in 1855, which would perhaps be Benjamin, already widowed, and living in CA, having left his daughter to be raised by his in-laws.

Benjamin T Thomas, marr cert, Santa Clara County, CA

1860 census, Canton Twp., Lewis County, MO

NJ Cannon 51, farmer, value of real estate $1,600, personal property $1,500, b. in KY

Amanthis Herrell, 29, b. in MO (NJ's married daughter)
Ellen Herrell, 2, b. in MO (grandchild)
Martha Herrell, 2/12, b. in MO (grandchild)

Further, when NJ dies in 1866 and his probate records list his heirs, there is no mention of any Thomas. I believe records show that this is because his daughter Mary Ann Cannon Thomas had preceded him in death.

There is a Benjamin Thomas on the 1860 census, b. in 1825, in MO, living in Tulare County, CA, with wife Mary, b. in 1836, in AR, sons Charles, 4, and Joseph, 2, b. in CA. Could be.

There's a Mary E. Thomas on an 1870 census in Santa Barbara County, MO, b. in AR in 1838, widow, with children Charles, 14, b. in CA, son Joseph, 11, b. in CA, dau. Sarah, 10, b. in CA, son Wm M., 5, b. in CA. Could be 2nd wife of Benjamin Thomas.

6/2022: Need to find marriage cert for Fetters and Mary. Online trees say is was June 10, but I haven't found the records.

1870 census, Jackson Twp., Clark County, MO

John Fetters, 24, farmer, value of personal property $250, b. in MO, parents of foreign birth, married within the year: June
Mollie Fetters, 21, keeps house, b. in MO, married in June

Keith Owen's tree shows that John Fetters d. 3/3/1874. There is a FAG memorial for a John Fetters in Saint Patrick's Cemetery, Saint Patrick, Clark, MO. Could very well be him.

So Mary is left a widow at 25 or so, with two little children.

Mary first married John Fetters, had a least two children (John Fetters, and Mary Ann Fetters), was widowed, then married James Chewning. Therefore, she and her aunt Elizabeth (Lizzie) married Chewning brothers.

James Madison Chewning married NJ and Elizabeth's granddaughter, Mary Elizabeth Thomas Fetters

According to the tombstone information above, and the fact that they lost 4 children, 3 of those 4 could be Viola, Oscar L., and Emma C., all of whose tombstones say they died prior to 1900.

Nita's information says that Jane Viola and Emma both died of snakebite (Jane Viola in June 1890, Emma in May 1900). The obit above says Emma died of typhoid fever.

James died in 1906.

On the Civil War Veterans index, his widow is listed, Mary Chewning. He was in the A & N, 2 Pro. En. Mo. Mil. From what I understand, that means the Provisional Missouri Enlisted Militia. On July 29, 1892, he is listed as an invalid, and on May 1, 1906, the classification is 'widow.'

On the Special Schedule, Surviving Soldiers, Sailors and Marines and Widows, Etc., 1890 Widows Pension list, he is listed as Private, company A, 69th Regiment, MO Infantry, May? 1862 – Oct. 1864, 2 years, 6 months, 0 days. Chronic bronchitis

In 2008, I was corresponding with Tressa Selby, whose husband was a great grandson of Eunice and Ephraim.

Ephraim and Eunice, son Herbert Bonis Harrel married Eva Lue Stacey. Their daughter, Anna Annie Harrel married Oscar David Selby. Their son, Darrel Richard Pete Selby married Tressa.

This is a portion of an email dated 7/23/2008:

She (Eunice) died in 1908 in Oklahoma and he died somewhere around 1883 in either Missouri or Kansas. Pete's (my husband) great uncle Robert Harrel told him that he was about 15 when his dad went to collect some money owed to him and the man shot and killed him.

...Does anyone have photos of the Cannons? We don't have any. Unise lived with another son's family about 15 miles from us and we don't have any.

Another email, dated 7/24/2008, also included information that Ephraim may have been shot. She also had been told that James, perhaps, died in an industrial accident, which was erroneous. It seems that he died of an illness, per newspaper articles of that time.

Ephraim was shot, but I'm not sure if it was in McDonald County, Missouri, or it could have been Cherokee County, Kansas. Some of the family was there in the 1880s. Their son Herbert and his wife Evalue Stacy were married there in 1895. I don't know where Ephraim is buried, but Unise is buried in Ramona, Washington County, Oklahoma. Her son James is buried next to her. He was killed in 1910. Pete's mother used to tell how one of her uncles was killed in an oilfield accident in an old power. (sic). There was a large belt in them and he got caught in it. I think this was James. He was married to Evalue Stacy's sister, Minnie Stacy. James and Minnie lived about 20 miles from where we live. Pete's mother great (sic) up about 10 miles from where we live.

Glad you found the Pogue's. In the census in 1910 they are in Osage County, Oklahoma, Blackdog Township living close (sic) the Herbert Harrell. There are several of Martha's children close. I will have to look up the names. I will get my information together as well as I can on Unise's family and send it to you. I am attaching the photo of Unise's headstone with this email.

Hi,

My name is Tressa Selby. Elizabeth and Martin Luther Cannon were siblings of my husbands great grandmother, Unise Amanthus Cannon. I am the one that took the photos of the Bible pages that are on the internet. It is in our family. It belonged to Unise and her family.

I am not sure why the LeMasters information is in there yet, I'm still working on it. I would love to share information with you about the Cannon family.

Hi, Tressa. I am so glad to hear from you!

If I didn't explain my connection to the Cannons before, it's like this:

Pamela Downes West/H. Finley Downes/Letha Florence Chewning Downes/Theodore Chewning/Elizabeth Ann Cannon Chewning/Newbold J Cannon/Newbold and Unicy Bounds Cannon

I have spent considerable time on the Cannons. My dad and I spent several days in Lewis and Clark counties, MO, in June this year, copying documents, visiting cemeteries, etc. I have copies of Newbold Sr. and Jr's estates papers, among other documents. We met four cousins, descendants from John B. Cannon, brother of Newbold J. Cannon. John B. Cannon would be Unise's uncle.

One of these cousins told us of the existence of three other daughters of Newbold J and Elizabeth which were not aware of, due to the missing 1850 census record. Newbold J's estate documents lists his heirs. You may already have known this, but Newbold J. and Elizabeth had the following children:

<http://us.mc586.mail.yahoo.com/mc/showMessage?fid=Inbox&sort=date&order=down&startMid=0&...> 7/23/2008

Mary Ann Cannon Thomas
Unise Amanthus Cannon Herrell
Martha Cannon Morrison
Frances Cannon Legg
William Cannon
Martin Luther Cannon
John Cannon
Elizabeth Ann (Lizzie) Cannon Chewning
Charles Cannon

I would be happy to send you the information I have to this point on the Cannons. Let me know if you are interested.

Have you been to Missouri? We were given a tour of the Wyaconda Baptist Church where so many of the family are buried. The land for the church was donated by Newbold Sr., and Unicy was the first marked grave there. Both markers are well taken care of.

How did you get the LeMaster Bible?? There are LeMasters on the early 1800 census in KY with the Cannons; there are LeMasters in MO during the era our Cannons were there. What do you know at this point about the LeMasters?

I'm anxious to hear back from you!

Pam,

My husbands great grandmother was Unise Amanthus Cannon. She married Ephraim Harrel. They had the Bible. It passed to their son, Robert Lee and then to my husband's mother, Robert Lee's niece. He did not marry or have any children and lived with them the last few years of his life. My sister in law has the Bible. It is in pretty bad shape, that's why I took photos of the pages.

The list of slave birthdates are the children of the slaves of Newbold Sr. The ones he left to his daughters in his will. I do not have the will of Newbold Jr. I have not been to Lewis County. I live in Avant, Oklahoma. It is about 28 miles northwest of Tulsa, OK. Unise is buried about 12 miles from where we live. Two of her children came to this area and pretty well stayed here.

I would love to have the information you have and would share mine with you. It took me a long time to connect the Bible with the Cannon's, but when I did it was great. Newbold, Sr., born in 1909 was the last birthdate listed.

I don't know where the LeMasters fit in. Inside the front cover, very dim to read it says tells of the marriage of Abraham LeMasters and Susanna Arnetta. I have found some things on them, but haven't been able to link them to the Cannons. If you have read the pages, you know there is more about the LeMasters written there.

I did know that Elizabeth Cannon married a Chewning. Didn't her mother marry a Chewning after Newbold Jr. died?

Did you ever find them on the 1850 census? I didn't. The information about the three daughters is new I think. I would have to look at my information. Unise had several children. They were Martha Ellen, Emma Louisa, Nathaniel Wicklif, Robert Lee, James Arthur, Coleman Bland and Herbert Bonis.

Well enough for now, I am glad to hear from you and hope to hear from you again soon. I will have to search those three girls. It will be interesting to find them.

About her name

Her marriage certificate used 'Nicey.' Her census records indicate she went by Amanthus or a form of that name. Her tombstone says Eunice Amanthus, as do her funeral record at the cemetery. I think she would prefer Amanthus, given that's what she gave to people on her censuses. I also found a newspaper clipping from 1902, showing her as Mrs. Amanthus Harrel.

1840 census, Lewis County, MO

NJ Cannon

1 male under 5 (William)
1 male 30-40 (NJ)
1 female under 5 (Francis)
2 females 5-10 (Amanthis and Martha)
1 female 10-15 (Mary Ann)
1 female 20-30 (Elizabeth)
2 people engaged in agriculture

NJ's sister, Sarah Ann Cannon Hawkins and family are a few entries prior to NJ's on the 1840 census. Their record shows 3 slaves.

On the 1840 census for Lewis County, Mo, there is an Isaac Herald, on the same page as NJ Cannon. Could this be Ephraim's father? Note: slaves on the 1840 census for Isaac Herald.

I can't find NJ and family anywhere on an 1850 census.

From an email from Nita Chewing: Pam, I found this note in the files for Mary Ann Cannon. I don't have the address for this lady but will try to find her next time I go to OK.

"Nita,

I am enclosing the attachment again. Hope you can get it. If you don't I will send you what it has on it. The other family is Newbold and Elizabeth's daughter Unise Amanthus, her husband, Ephraim and their children. This is my husband's great grandparents.

We live in Oklahoma and she is buried about 12 miles from our house. In 1880, they are in McDonald County, Missouri and then they came to Oklahoma.

Martin and John Cannon both were in Illinois and married in 1870. Ephraim and Unise were still in Lewis County.

Ephraim may have been shot

In 2008, I was corresponding with Tressa Selby, whose husband was a great grandson of Unise and Ephraim. Her email, dated 7/24/2008, included information that Ephraim may have been shot:

Ephraim was shot, but I'm not sure if it was in McDonald County, Missouri, or it could have been Cherokee County, Kansas. Some of the family was there in the 1880s. Their son Herbert and his wife Evalue Stacy were married there in 1895. I don't know where Ephraim is buried, but Unise is buried in Ramona, Washington County, Oklahoma. Her son James is buried next to her. He was killed in 1910. Pete's mother used to tell how one of her uncles was killed in an oilfield accident in an old power. (sic). The Cemetery Sexton looked up the plot and dates in his records. This is Unise Amanthus Harrel's tombstone but it is hard to read the stone. Their records show birth: 21 Mar 1832. Death: 11 Jan 1908. They also show in the papers her first name as "Eunice".

Death of J. A. Harrel.

J. A. Harrel, a respected farmer of this neighborhood, died last Thursday after an illness of a few weeks. He was taken down while in town one day with a gathering in his head and continued to get worse until his death. The deceased was a hard working man and had become fairly well fixed financially. This spring he bought a farm just south of town and had a new house nearly completed when death claimed him. He leaves a wife and family besides other relatives and friends to mourn his death. Burial was made at the Ramona cemetery, Undertaker Stewart accompanying the body to that place.

Some Runaways.

Three runaways happened in quick succession on the streets Tuesday noon. H. B. Harrel's team got frightened while standing near the Skiatook Mercantile company's store and started down the street dragging the hitching pole, to which they were tied, with them. This scared the dray team driven by C. L. Hannon and they ran a short distance before being stopped. Another team, whose owner we did not learn, ran a short distance also. Mr. Harrel was the only one to sustain a loss, as one of his horses was hurt slightly and the harness somewhat torn up.

Martha Cannon Morrison

Daughter of Newbold J and Elizabeth Ann Beckner Cannon

Granddaughter of Newbold and Unicy Bounds Cannon and Frederick and Mary Locke Beckner

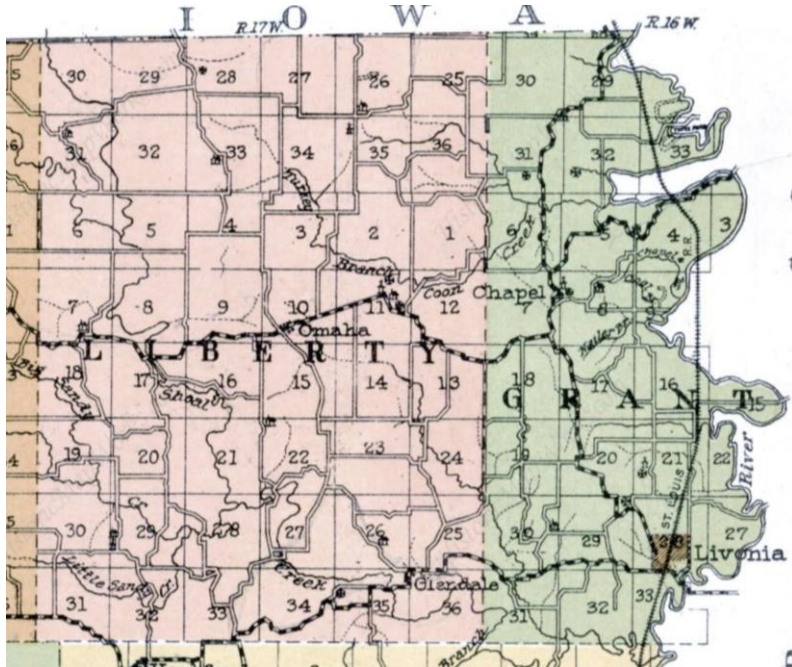

"Martha Morrison in Omahaw City," is listed as one of the heirs of Newbold J. Cannon in 1866; otherwise, I wasn't aware he had a daughter named Martha. Martha Cannon Morrison was born in 1835 in Missouri. Because the 1840 census doesn't include names, I am assuming that she is one of the 'females 5-10.' I can't find a family census for 1850.

The phrase "Omahaw City," is confusing. After researching Martha, I don't see that they lived outside of the Lewis County area.

They could have moved to Omaha, NE, for a period of time.

They also could have lived in Omaha City, MO, which is in Putnam County, MO.

OR, is it possible, that they were in Omaha, Morris, TX?? It was an area in which others of the family moved during the Civil War. Franklin County, TX; Morris County, TX?

the Office of the Head Qr. of Col. Wm. M. Reading.
On entering the Office an animated conversation was going on with the company in from Military duty. The said McCullough was denouncing the government of Abraham opprobrious epithets against the President of the United States and his supporters. I do not recollect the precise terms made use of by said McCullough but its general force

I made remark that such men ought to

In Memoriam.

George H. Morrison was born in Lewis county, January 13, 1855, died Nov. 14, 1916, aged 60 years, 10 months and 1 day. May 9, 1882 he married Minnie L. Frances, who preceded him to the great beyond in 1884. He leaves to mourn his loss one daughter, Mrs Bertha Gaines, six grandchildren, two sisters, Mesdames Dennis McDonnell of Winchester, and Robert Baker of Canton, and a large number of neighbors and friends. He was unassuming in his manner, devoted to his family, a lover of his home and faithful to his church, always exemplifying her teachings in his daily life. As a neighbor he acted the part of the good samaritan, ever ready to lend a helping hand to his fellow man.

The high esteem in which he was held was shown by the large concourse of friends attending the funeral at St. Patrick, where his remains were placed beside those of his wife to whose memory he was faithful unto death by devoting his life to the welfare of his little daughter left motherless at the age of two months. May she and hers emulate the life so nobly spent.

A FRIEND.

McDONNELL

From Gate City, Feb. 15.

Mrs. Emma McDonnell, a well known resident of Clark county, Mo., passed away at St. Joseph's hospital here this morning at 1:20 o'clock. Mrs. McDonnell was suddenly taken ill with appendicitis last Friday and she was brought here where an operation was performed as a last resort to save her life.

Emma Morrison was born in Lewis county, Mo., Jan. 19, 1859. She lived there until her marriage to Dennis McDonnell November 14, 1882. The young couple then moved to Winchester, Mo., and they had been living in the vicinity of that city until Mrs. McDonnell's death here this morning.

Mrs. McDonnell was a member of the St. Patrick, Mo., Catholic church and she was active in that work, holding membership in the woman's sodality for many years.

She is survived by her husband, Dennis McDonnell; three daughters, Mrs. Alice Long of South Dakota, Mrs. Bessie Boudreau and Mrs. Lutie Fetter of St. Patrick, Mo., and three sons, James McDonnell of North Dakota, and Charles and Edward, both of St. Patrick. One niece, Mrs. Cecil McLaughlin of this city, together with numerous other relatives and friends also survive Mrs. McDonnell.

The funeral services will be held Friday, Feb. 17, at 10 a. m. at St. Patrick Catholic church, conducted by Fr. Mulcahy. Interment at St. Patrick.

Died.

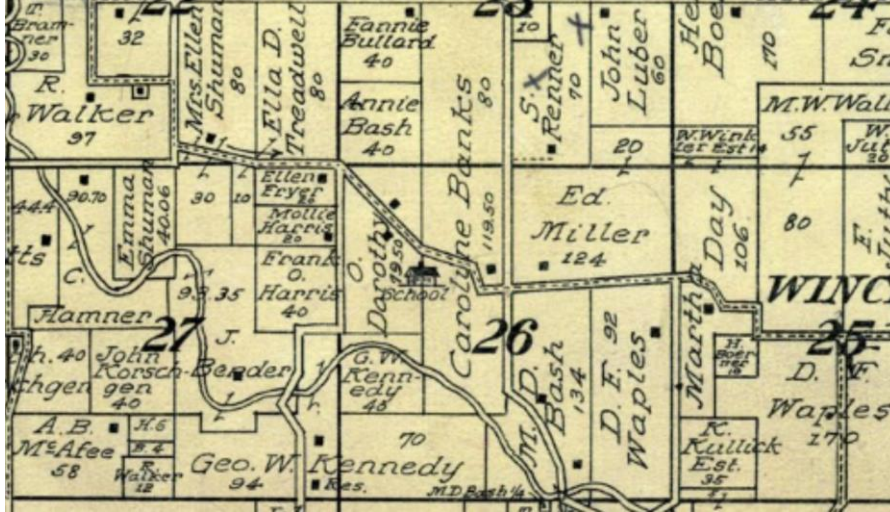

Mollie, wife of Frank O. Harris, died at her home near Winchester, Clark county, Wednesday, Sept. 9, 1914, aged 52 years, 10 months and 12 days.

Mollie Morrison, daughter of George and Martha Morrison, was born October 27, 1861 in Lewis county.

She was married to Frank O. Harris September 27, 1891, and settled on the farm where she resided until her death. She is survived by her husband, a foster son, James Jenkins, both of Clark county; a brother, George Morrison, two sisters, Mrs. Dennis McDonell and Mrs. Robert Baker, all of Lewis county.

The death angel has visited another home and taken from our midst a most estimable woman, a woman notable for her many good deeds and acts of charity. One who will be greatly missed in her community for her noble traits of character, one especially, her motherly care of motherless children of her acquaintance, ever ready at any sacrifice to visit and assist at the home in distress, and many are the men and women who will long revere her memory as of one, who in time of trouble and grief came to their temporal relief and spoke words of cheer to their sorrowing hearts. Her life exemplified the scripture that "pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction." Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry and that thou bring the poor that are afflicted to thy house? It is not possible that she did not err. There is none perfect save one, but her life as an example is worthy of imitation.

Frances' husband married at least one more time, to Josephine Clark. They have several more children, in TX. Apparently they were in TX by 1880. Several of Frances' children went with their father to TX. Annie, William, James, George and Nancy are Frances' children on the 1880 census, Precinct 2, Camp, TX, with their father. Nancy, age 6, is listed on the 1880 census as having a 'broken arm.'

Amanthis Herrell, 29, b. in MO (this would be their married daughter)
Ellen Herrell, 2, b. in MO
Martha Herrell, 2/12, b. in MO

This is the only census I can prove that he's on. He is NOT with is widowed mother, sister Lizzie and brother Charles on the 1870 census (where his mother and siblings are living with James Chewning, in Clark County):

There is a Monmouth, Warren, IL, directory for 1874-1875 that MIGHT include him:

1874-1875 Monmouth, Warren, IL
Cannon, Charles, laborer, res es Lancaster n Cherry
Cannon, John N, stone mason res nw cor Walnut and Warsaw
Cannon, Martin L, stone mason res sw cor Berwick and Cherry
Cannon, William, helper, Weir Plow Company

There are records at footnote.com for William Cannon, which show that a William Cannon (don't know if he is ours, of course) served in the Confederate Army.

There are numerous William Cannons, but I can't specifically link one to our family. We know from the papers filed at Newbold J's death that William was an heir, and living in Lewis County, MO in 1866. After that, we don't have any information regarding him. I found the following very interesting information, however, and have to believe there is a connection to our family, whether it is through Newbold J. or a sibling:

1910 census, Hagansport, Franklin, TX

William K. Cannon, 69, married 1, 41 years, b. in MO, parents b. in KY, farmer, general farm, owns farm, free

Mary E Cannon, 59, married 1, 41 years, 13 children, 7 living, b. in NC, parents b. in NC

Martin G., son, 32, married 1, married 12 years, b. in TX, father b. in MO, mother b. in NC, farmer, general farm

Lizzie, 34, daughter in law, married 1 married 12 years, 5 children, 4 living, b. in TX, father b. US, mother b. MS

Maudie, 9, granddaughter, b. in TX, parents b. in TX

Lillie, 7, granddaughter, etc.

Nicie, 5, granddaughter, etc.

Martin L., 3 1/2, grandson, etc.

After finding this, I searched rootsweb, and found the following:

- William K. Cannon, b. 12/1839, MO (age would be exactly correct according to the 1860 census)
- The "K" stands for Kirkman, the name of Newbold J's eldest brother
- Has a granddaughter Nicie, which was the name Eunice Amanthus Cannon Herrel used, as well as Unicy Bounds Cannon
- Has a son named Martin, and a grandson Martin Luther, as his brother was named
- Daughter, Betsy A., marked Davis. Betsy A. would have been William's mother's name
- Mary Willie Cannon was b. in MO 1/27/1870, so he was still in the state at that time. By 1873 in TX, based on the birth year given for Ida J. Cannon.

We know that William Madison Legg, widow of Frances Cannon Legg, moved to TX (I believe via MS) after Frances' death in 1870. It's possible that William went with him, married and raised his family in Texas. The Leggs eventually moved to KS.

From the 1903 Historical Encyclopedia of Illinois, Warren County. I have absolutely no idea if this pertains to us:

The Third United Presbyterian church of Monmouth was organized at the South Ward school house January 12, 1867, by Rev. Robert Ross and Elders W. A. Robison and M. D. Campbell of the Second church and W. J. Thomson and Struthers of the First church

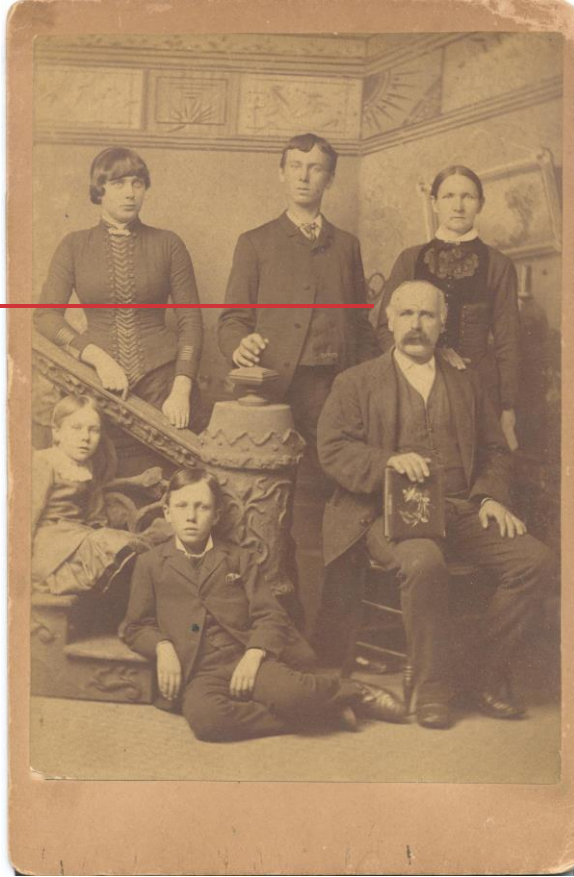

Thirty seven members were received by letter and three by profession of their faith, making a charter membership of forty. William Cannon, William Graham, Samuel S. Findley and David Inches were chosen elders, and W. J. Black and Alex M. Patterson deacons, and they were ordained and installed January 19.

Martin Luther Cannon appears with parents on 1860 census, age 17, b. in MO. See above. There is an oath of loyalty for Martin Luther Cannon of Lewis County, MO, dated Oct. 1862. Martin Luther, and his brother John moved to Monmouth, Warren, IL, sometime after 1862, and before Martin Luther married in 1865. NJ's list of heirs in 1866, also says that Martin Luther and John are in Illinois.

I found that Martin Luther registered for the Civil War draft from Lenox Twp., Warren County, IL, 7/25/1863, so he was in IL sometime after he signed an oath of loyalty in MO in 1862, and his registration in IL in 1863.

Martin Luther and Aquillia were married by a 'minister of the Gospel,' C. Springer.

In 1870, Martin Luther and his family lived as boarders in the boarding home run by her mother, Catherine M. Osmund/Ozman Reese/Reece Allen. Catherine is buried in Monmouth Cemetery, by the way, and I have linked Aquillia and Mary Reese/Reece Cannon (her daughters by her first marriage) to her memorial.

There is an 1876 Illinois Atlas, which shows the old names of the streets in Monmouth. Berwick ran north/south, in Ward 3, south of the railroad, 6 blocks east of Main, making it South 6th St. I presume that they always lived at 1104 S. 6th (e.g. Berwick).

Street Names Changed Twice in Monmouth

In 1887, many street names were discontinued or changed. Berwick became Center, Warsaw became Wood. Another committee was formed in 1890; Center became 6th, Wood became 3rd, as they are today. Lancaster was Cedar after 1887, then 4th after 1890.

From 1903 Historical Encyclopedia of Illinois, Warren, County. Notice that Ransom Doney is listed; his daughter, Katie R. Doney, would later marry Charles H. Cannon:

The Bricklayers' Union was formed in April, 1902, with these officers: President, Ransom Doney, Jr.; vice president, Albert Cannon; secretary, Harry Richey; corresponding secretary, Harry Wilson; treasurer, O. B. Preston.

Note: There are Doney's living with Martin's sons Albert and Charles in Parkersburg, WVA, on census records for 1910 forward. Again, the relationship comes from Charles marrying Katie R. Doney.

Involvement with the Democratic Party

I found numerous newspaper articles showing Martin Luther's involvement with politics for the 5th District in Monmouth, starting maybe in 1896, at least through 1905.

In 1983, my dad, H. Finley Downes, took his mother, Letha Florence Chewning Downes, on a trip to visit places from her childhood. They put a photo album together of these various homes, farms, and churches she attended, and I have a copy of it. In it, she mentioned that she moved to Monmouth, IL, and lived next door to "Uncle Lou." About this first home in Monmouth, at 1108 S. 6th Street, Grandma wrote: This is the house we lived in when my father moved to Monmouth, Ill., which was in Dec., 1919. The house belonged to Zelma Cannon or Uncle Lou Cannon. We lived there for nearly a year. It was on South 6th St.

WOMAN HELD IN JAIL HERE FOUND HOME WAS ROBBED IN HER ABSENCE

Trouble and plenty of it has been dogging the tracks of Miss Mary Vance of Kewanee who was released from jail here Monday after spending a couple of weeks in prison waiting for friends on the outside to raise enough money to pay her fine of $100 and costs. Miss Vance was arrested by the sheriff on or about August 16 and when she was arraigned in court she was fined $100 and costs. She waited for friends to get enough dough to spring her and when she went home yesterday she found that during her absence her home had been robbed and about $200 worth of personal property was missing. The police in Kewanee were notified but nothing was found to give any evidence as to the identity of the thief.

Need to find her 1900 census

There is no husband listed in 1903, but there is another Brown family in the 1905 directory at 901 S. Sixth
(Lewis-Brown)

They were obviously living apart in 1903. The address for John H. Brown, Jr., living at 1136 S. Second street, matches his 1910 census, where he states his occupation as blacksmith.

On the 1920 census, he lists his address as 1112 S. Second, and occupation as 'none.'

In 1887, many street names were discontinued or changed. Berwick became Center, Warsaw became Wood. Another committee was formed in 1890; Center became 6th, Wood became 3rd, as they are today.

Lizzie must have been ill with consumption when they married and were having children; their children died very young. Lizzie is buried in Monmouth Cemetery; I presume that their children are, also.

March 22, 1893 — Cleopatra Cannon

Cleopatra Cannon, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cannon, aged 52?? months, died at its parents' home on South Fifth Street, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock; pneumonia was the cause of its death.

The 1893 directory explains the South Fifth street reference in the obits.

I believe that Lizzie died at 1126 S. 5th St., per this obit, and using the 1893 directory:

April 16, 1894 — Mrs. Lizzie B. Cannon

The death of Mrs. Lizzie B. Cannon, wife of Charles H. Cannon, occurred this morning at 3 o'clock at the late residence on South Fifth street. She had been ill for the past six months. Consumption was the cause of her death.

June 18, 1894 — Cannon (infant child)

The funeral of the infant child of Charles Cannon, whose death occurred Friday, took place from the family residence on South Fourth Street Saturday morning. Dr. W.T. Campbell, pastor of the Second United Presbyterian church, conducted the services. The child was but three months old and died of consumption.

Charles married again in 1895, to Kathryn R. Doney

I made a findagrave memorial for Carroll Cannon in 2009, showing that he died in 1907. Truthfully, I don't know where I got that information. I've asked for a picture of his grave.

The census following the 1910 and censuses shows the Doney family; I believe that woman (Alice) is Kate's sister.

In April 2011 I visited the Monmouth Library and found in their genealogy section an obituary for Charles, son of Martin Luther and Aquillia:

Charles H. Cannon — Dec. 3, 1938

Charles H. Cannon, 71, died yesterday at Parkersburg, West Virginia, according to word received here this morning. Mr. Cannon's death was quite sudden. The body will be brought here for burial but arrangements for the services have not been completed, pending word in regard to the probable time of arrival of the funeral party from the east.

Mr. Cannon lived in this city during the greater part of his life, leaving Monmouth about 30 years ago for Parkersburg. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther Cannon, the family home being at 1104 South Sixth street. Like his father before him, he was a brick mason by trade. He is survived by his wife and a brother, Albert Cannon of Parkersburg, and by a sister, Mrs. W. W. Kelley of this city.

Carroll, who had apparently suffered with consumption all his life (indeed, his mother died in 1894 of consumption, as did his little sister, Cleopatra), died probably at his home in Williamstown, WVA, in 1907. I have the death register from WVA which shows this, although the obit that I copied from the Monmouth Library made me believe that he had died at his grandparents' home in Monmouth.

I found this obit for Carroll:

Carroll Cannon – October 17 and 21, 1907

The many friends of Carroll Cannon in this city will be grieved to learn of his death, which took place — he has never been very strong — been know that deadly consumption was doing its work on his young body, so that last night at 9:30, when he was called to his reward, the end was not altogether unexpected. He took a trip to West Virginia, where his father lives, during the summer months, returning here in August, in the hope that the change of climate would benefit him, but to no avail.

Carroll Cannon was born in Monmouth, Nov. 15, 1891. He made this place his home all his life and since his mother died when he was but a few years of age, he has lived with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Cannon on South Sixth street. He was always a bright young fellow, even though his health was not of the best, and was very apt in his studies. He was a regular attendant of the Ninth Avenue United Presbyterian Church.

Word has been received from his father, C. H. Cannon, that he will leave Parkersburg this evening, and will probably arrive here tomorrow evening.

(21st) The funeral of Carroll Cannon, son of Charles H. Cannon, was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of his grandfather, M. L. Cannon. Dr. J. F. Jamieson of the Ninth Avenue church was in charge,.....Interment was in the Monmouth cemetery.

Myrtle died prior to 1900 census. I found her obit. I copied this from the Monmouth library, and the lapses in the text were as I found it:

~~Mrs. Lena Myrtie Cannon—January 17, 18 and 20, 1900—The Monmouth Review Atlas
The death of Mrs. Albert Cannon occurred at 1 o'clock this morning at the family residence, 1115 South First (sic?? should be Fifth) street, from a complication of diseases. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon.~~

~~Lena Myrtie Cannon was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Morningstar formerly of Monmouth, but now living in Roseville. She was born June 5, 1874 (sic).....(20th) (description of funeral).~~

CANNON, Lena M., b: Roseville, Ill. d: South 5th St., Monmouth, Ill., 17

1900 census, Monmouth, Warren, IL—1104 S. 6th Street

Mart L. Cannon, 57, b. Jan. 1843, married 35 years, b. in MO, parents b. in KY, brick layer, months not employed in last year: 6, own home free
Aquillia Cannon, 57, b. July 1842, 4 children, 4 children living, b. in OH, father b. in NY, mother b. in OH
Zelma Cannon, 22, daughter, single, b. Mar. 1878, b. in IL, father b. in MO, mother b. in OH
Carroll L. Cannon, 8, grandson, b. Nov. 1891, b. in IL, parents b. in IL, in school
Charles H. Cannon, 33, son, married, b. May 1867, b. in IL, father b. in MO, mother b. in OH, brick layer
Albert Cannon, 26, son, widowed, b. Sep. 1873, b. in IL, father b. in MO, mother b. in OH, brick layer, unemployed 4 months

Another 1900 census; this shows that Albert was widowed, and the fact that Roy Morningstar is the boarder next to him, makes me believe our Albert, who had been married to Myrtle L. Morningstar, was in CO temporarily, brick laying with his brother in law. The Lewis' family owns the house; the rest are boarders there.
