Cannon Cemetery is a lost family cemetery of the Cannon family. It is on land belonging to Mr. Chucky Frazier about two miles south of Hagansport. No sign of this cemetery remains and it was probably abandoned about 1900.

William's future wife, Mary Elizabeth Dixon

In 1850, the Dixon family was living in Person County, NC. Henry Dixon listed his occupation as overseer.

- Mary E., 10, b. in NC
- Martha C., 8, b. in NC

Where and how did William meet Mary Elizabeth Dixon?

I have no record for a marriage for them, or for an 1870 census for them. The first child that I know of, Mary, was born about 1871 in MO. Yet I have no reason to think that Mary Elizabeth Dixon would have been in MO about 1865, when the couple apparently married.

I have to presume that William went to Texas with one of his siblings or neighbors, met and married, then returned to Lewis County by the time of his father's probate in 1866.

We know that William Madison Legg, widow of Frances Cannon Legg, moved to TX (I believe via MS) after Frances' death in 1879?. It's possible that William went with him, and raised his family in Texas.

1870

He is NOT with is widowed mother, sister Lizzie and brother Charles on the 1870 census (where his mother and siblings are living with James Chewning, in Clark County).

This is a copy of the Monmouth directory for 1874. Brothers Charles, John and Martin Luther are there; is this William our man?

Sold land to daughter Mary Willie Cannon Ramsey in Franklin County, TX, in 1891

The image shows a handwritten deed document. The text is written in cursive and is somewhat difficult to read due to the handwriting and some ink bleed-through. The document appears to be a deed of sale from W.K. Cannon and M.E. Cannon to D.J. Ramsey and M.M. Ramsey. It mentions the State of Texas and Franklin County. The document is enclosed in a rectangular border.

William Kirkman Cannon, death cert.

His death cert doesn't say where he was buried. The photo I found online attached to his family by his great granddaughter, show that he is at least memorialized at the family farm in Hagansport, Franklin, TX.

Land divided between his heirs

I found this document at the Franklin County, TX, website, showing Mary Elizabeth, his widow, giving 1/2 of the land to their children: Martin Gilford Cannon, William Dunaway Cannon, Bettie Davis (formerly Bettie Ann Cannon), M. D. Shaw (formerly Margaret Dora Cannon), E.L. Neal (formerly Emma Louiza Cannon), and grandson W.E. Hokes (William Edward Hokes, son of deceased daughter Ida J. Cannon Hokes).

The only living children that weren't mentioned were Mary Willie Cannon, and Sallie Clifford Cannon, or any of ther children.

I know that William and Mary sold 160 acres to daughter May Willie Cannon Ramsey and her husband in 1891. They also sold land to Sallie Clifford Cannon Moncreith Prichard Edwards and her husband in 1910. Not sure how many acres.

John's death record says he was buried in Cannon 'Semetry,' so I asked the owner of his FAG memorial to place him there. She had chosen to record him in the same cemetery as Dora and McLemore, but there was no record for that burial, just her assumption. I believe, b/c of the memorial stone created at the Cannon Family Cemetery, that his memorial belongs there.

Robert Lee Edwards, WWI reg

It seems that Edwards died between the 1918 WWI reg and the 1920 census records. His name is on the Memorial stone at the Cannon Family Cemetery; however, I can't find any further information for him.

Sallie's first son, Henry Wesley Moncrief and his wife, Cassie, were living with Sallie and her children from her marriage to Prichard, on the 1920 census.

1920 census, Precinct 5, Hunt County, TX

S.C. Edwards, 37, rents farm, b. in TX, father b. in MO, mother b. in NC, farm, laborer on farm, wages

Mary F. Prichard, 19, b. in TX, parents b. in TX,

According to online trees, Sallie married a fourth time, in 1921, to Fred Walter Nelson, a widower. I can't find a 1930 census for them. Online trees also say they had a daughter, Cora Maude Nelson, b. 11/28/1921, in Cooper, Delta, TX. Cora married a man named Vernon Roland, and moved to Arizona prior to the 1940 census. I assume that's why Sallie and Fred will later be in AZ.

1940 census, Precinct 5, Delta County, TX Charleston Rd.

F.W. Nelson, 58, no school grades completed, b. in AR, same house in 1935, TX, employed private work, 40 hrs/wk, farming, farm, 40 wks/yr

Emma Louiza Cannon Neal, marr cert

Emmie and her family are living 'next door' to her parents on the 1910 census.

Death of daughter Effie

I believe that the Effie Neal, who is named on the memorial stone at the Cannon Family Cemetery, is Emma's daughter. Emma's 1910 census says that she had borne 3 children, 2 are living. While this death cert doesn't include a name for the little girl, it makes sense it would be Effie.

Vannie Cannon, Cannon Family Cemetery

William Kirkman Cannon family marker. Hagansport, Franklin, TX

I have no way of knowing for sure, but I believe that the Vannie Cannon on this monument was a child of William Dunaway and his wife. They have a daughter, Mary, b. 1906, a son, Johnnie, b. 1910, and their 1910 census says that Callie had 3 children born, 2 living. I made a monument for Vannie at the Cannon Family Cemetery site at FAG.

Taken prior to Carroll's death in 1907 (Carroll was b. 1891). Also, Albert's children, b. 1906, and 1917, not in pic, so probably prior to 1906.

Martin Luther Cannon appears with parents on 1860 census, age 17, b. in MO. See above.
There is an oath of loyalty for Martin Luther Cannon of Lewis County, MO, dated Oct. 1862.

Martin Luther, and his brother John moved to Monmouth, Warren, IL, sometime after 1862, and before Martin Luther married in 1865. NJ's list of heirs in 1866, also says that Martin Luther and John are in Illinois.

I found that Martin Luther registered for the Civil War draft from Lenox Twp., Warren County, IL, 7/25/1863, so he was in IL sometime after he signed an oath of loyalty in MO in 1862, and his registration in IL in 1863.

Martin Luther and Aquillia were married by a 'minister of the Gospel,' C. Springer.

In 1870, Martin Luther and his family lived as boarders in the boarding home run by her mother, Catherine M. Osmund/Ozman Reese/Reece Allen. Catherine is buried in Monmouth Cemetery, by the way, and I have linked Aquillia and Mary Reese/Reece Cannon (her daughters by her first marriage) to her memorial.

LOOK AT 1893.

The Improvements of the City in '93 Overshadowed by Last Year's Elder Brother, '92.

The year that has gone into history has not been as full of prosperity for Monmouth as the one just preceding. The improvements of the city, however, reach about $300,000 which is not a bad record when we consider the stringency of the times during the last half of the year. We give a list of improvements below which is as nearly correct as can be ascertained:

street.....	400 00
Mrs. M. L. Cannon, East Tenth street.....	1,000 00
M. L. Cannon, East Tenth street, improvements.....	500 00
Mrs. Fannie Pangborn Singh.....

BIGAMY IS CHARGED.

POLICE ARE STILL SEARCHING FOR JOHN CANNON.

BELIEVED TO BE STILL ALIVE.

Wife No. 2 Filed Several Depositions at Clayton—She Thinks He Is at Monmouth or Chicago.

Two depositions filed in the Circuit Court at Clayton bring out a new phase of the disappearance of John Cannon while he was a patient at the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium, several weeks ago.

The depositions charge Cannon with being the husband of two wives and are filed in support of the suit of the second wife, Mrs. Varilda Caufield Cannon, for a divorce.

The circumstances surrounding Cannon's disappearance, which are revealed now for the first time, are peculiar.

It seems, according to the statement of wife No. 2, that while Cannon lay ill at the sanitarium she telegraphed to his children at Monmouth, Ill., of his condition. In response to the message, the children came, bringing with them a woman whom they called mother, and who, wife No. 2 became convinced, had a claim on Cannon.

Subsequent to this, Dean Cannon, a son, called at the Sanitarium. He carried his father out in his arms and put him in a carriage, which was driven rapidly away. Many supposed that he had died, but Attorney S. C. Rogers, who represents wife No. 2, believes he is either at Monmouth or with his daughters at Chicago.

One of the depositions is made by Circuit Clerk Tourtellat of Warren County, Ill., and the other is by Martin L. Cannon, brother of John Cannon.

The evidence in both shows that Cannon was married to his first wife, Mary Cannon, in 1867, and that she is still living at Monmouth. They know nothing of a divorce.

Attorney Rogers also has evidence that there was another wife between this first and the one who now sues for divorce. She was Carrie B. Cannon. She died in January, 1898, and Cannon married Mrs. Varilda Caufield of St. Louis in June of the same year. Thus he stands accused of having twice committed bigamy, but death saved him from the consequences of one alleged offense.

When the last wife became cognizant of these alleged facts, she filed suit for divorce and procured two warrants against Cannon. One charges him with taking furniture, which she claims belonged to her, from a flat at 1517 Goode avenue, and the other charges him with bigamy. These warrants are in the hands of St. Louis and St. Louis County officers.

Another remarkable feature of the case is that two of Cannon's children, by the Monmouth wife, visited at the home where Cannon and wife No. 2 were living, remaining from April 1 to April 17. This is how Mrs. Cannon No. 2 learned that he had children. When Cannon became ill, it was natural that Mrs. Cannon No. 2 should notify them. She was wholly unprepared for the revelation that followed their coming with their mother.

Mrs. Cannon No. 2 lives in West Cabanne. Attorney Rogers says she is only anxious to procure a divorce from Cannon. "These depositions," he said, "show conclusively that he has another wife living at Monmouth. My client first heard of it when the other wife came to see him when he was ill."

"I don't believe he is dead. He was taken from the Sanitarium by his son, Dean, and is either at Monmouth or with his son at Chicago."

Cannon has five children, ranging in age from 20 to 30. The oldest child, George, lives in Chicago. The others live at Monmouth, Ill.

I wonder if the property at E 10th was investment property, or Aquillia's mothers? They lived on S. 6th.

From 1903 Historical Encyclopedia of Illinois, Warren, County. Notice that Ransom Doney is listed; his daughter, Katie R. Doney, would later marry Charles H. Cannon:

The Bricklayers' Union was formed in April, 1902, with these officers: President, Ransom Doney, Jr.; vice president, Albert Cannon; secretary, Harry Richey; corresponding secretary, Harry Wilson; treasurer, O. B. Preston.

Note: There are Doneys living with Martin's sons Albert and Charles in Parkersburg, WVA, on census records for 1910 forward. Again, the relationship comes from Charles marrying Katie R. Doney.

Involvement with the Democratic Party

I found numerous newspaper articles showing Martin Luther's involvement with politics for the 5th District in Monmouth, starting maybe in 1896, at least through 1905.

Nephew Theodore Chewing and family moved to Monmouth in 1919

We are sorry to report, that Theodore Chewning, our long time village blacksmith, has sold his property to Henry Drew, and will soon leave for Monmouth, Ill. where he hopes to finish educating his children. This move not only means the loss of the family but the mill and shop as well. Mr. Dedman of Medill has bought the engine and will move it to Medill. The shop will be used as a garage.

In 1983, my dad, H. Finley Downes, took his mother, Letha Florence Chewning Downes, on a trip to visit places from her childhood. They put a photo album together of these various homes, farms, and churches she attended, and I have a copy of it. In it, she mentioned that she moved to Monmouth, IL, and lived next door to "Uncle Lou."

The handwriting on the photo is hers. They moved into a house owned by Martin Luther – or Uncle Lou, as she called him. The address of the house they rented from Uncle Lou was 1108 S. 6th St. Uncle Lou lived at 1104 S. 6th.

This is the house ~~we lived in when~~ lived there for nearly a year. It was on

MRS. M. L. CANNON DIED LAST EVENING AT HER HOME HERE

Mrs. Aquilla Cannon passed away last evening at 9:05 o'clock at her home, 1104 South Sixth street, following a long illness. Her death was caused from the influenza due to her advanced age, and she had been confined to her bed for the past three the past three days she had been unconscious.

Aquilla Reece was born in Medina, Medina county, Ohio, on July 2, 1842, and came to Illinois when quite young.
On June 8, 1868, she was united in marriage to Martin Luther Cannon and had always made Monmouth her home since. To this union four children were born, three of whom survive.—Charles and Albert Cannon of Parkersburg, West Va., and Zelma at home. There are two grandchildren, Kenneth and Karl Cannon.

Mr. Cannon preceded his wife in death a year ago on March 6, and a daughter, Leora Cannon Brown, passed away in 1920.

During the past three days
she had been unconscious.

She is also survived by one brother, Cornelius Reece of Chicago, and two half-sisters, Rhoda Trombly and Katherine Vandermark of Benton, Ill.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been made, awaiting arrival of the sons who are on their way here.
Announcement of the funeral will be made tomorrow. It was Mrs. Cannon's request that there be no flowers.

WOMAN HELD IN JAIL HERE FOUND HOME WAS ROBBED IN HER ABSENCE

Trouble and plenty of it has been dogging the tracks of Miss Mary Vance of Kewanee who was released from jail here Monday after spending a couple of weeks in prison waiting for friends on the outside to raise enough money to pay her fine of $100 and costs. Miss Vance was arrested by the sheriff on or about August 16 and when she was arraigned in court she was fined $100 and costs. She waited for friends to get enough dough to spring her and when she went home yesterday she found that during her absence her home had been robbed and about $200 worth of personal property was missing. The police in Kewanee were notified but nothing was found to give any evidence as to the identity of the thief.

LIVINGSTON WILL DO STUNTS TODAY AT IOWA STATE FAIR

Thousands of Iowans at the Iowa State Fair at Des Moines will have a chance to watch some superb stunt flying today and tomorrow, with John Livingston of the Midwest Airways Corporation at the controls of a Whirlwind motored Waco.

Last night Livingston received a telegram from the owners of the plane which was delivered by the Monmouth concern last week, stating

Need to find her 1900 census

There is no husband listed in 1903, but there is another Brown family in the 1905 directory at 901 S. Sixth (Lewis Brown)

They were obviously living apart in 1903. The address for John H. Brown, Jr., living at 1136 S. Second street, matches his 1910 census, where he states his occupation as blacksmith.

On the 1920 census, he lists his address as 1112 S. Second, and occupation as 'none.'

In 1887, many street names were discontinued or changed. Berwick became Center, Warsaw became Wood. Another committee was formed in 1890; Center became 6th, Wood became 3rd, as they are today.

Carroll, who had apparently suffered with consumption all his life (indeed, his mother died in 1894 of consumption, as did his little sister, Cleopatra, and another infant sibling), died probably at his home in Williamstown, WVA, in 1907. I have the death register from WVA which shows this, although the obit that I copied from the Monmouth library made me believe that he had died at his grandparents' home in Monmouth.

CARROLL CANNON - October 17 and 21, 1907

The many friends of Carroll Cannon in this city will be grieved to learn of his death, which took place ----- He has never been very strong ----- been known that deadly consumption was doing its work on his young body, so that last night at 9:30, when he was called to his reward, the end was not altogether unexpected. He took a trip to West Virginia, where his father lives, during the summer months, returning here in August, in the hope that the change of climate would benefit him, but to no avail.

Carroll Cannon was born in Monmouth, Nov. 15, 1891. He has made this place his home all his life and since his mother died when he was but a few years of age, he has lived with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Cannon on South Sixth street. He was always a bright young fellow, even though his health was not of the best, and was very apt in his studies. He was a regular attendant of the Ninth Avenue United Presbyterian church.

Word has been received from his father, C. H. Cannon, that he will leave Parkersburg this evening, and will probably arrive here tomorrow evening.

(21st) The funeral of Carroll Cannon, son of Charles H. Cannon, was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of his grandfather, M. L. Cannon. Dr. J. F. Jamieson of the Ninth Avenue church was in charge, ..... Interment was in the Monmouth cemetery.

Another 1900 census; this shows that Albert was widowed, and the fact that Roy Morningstar is the boarder next to him, makes me believe our Albert, who had been married to Lena Myrtle Morningstar, was in CO temporarily, brick laying with his brother-in-law. The Lewis' family owns the house; the rest are boarders there.

IN RE: LAST WILL & TESTAMENT OF ALBERT CANNON, DECEASED.

"A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Albert Cannon, deceased, a late resident of this County, bearing date the 24th day of April, 1926, was this day presented in open Court for probate; and said writing being duly proven by the oath of H. O. Hiteshew, the first subscribing witness thereto, who, after first being duly sworn, testified that the signature of the first subscribing witness to said writing was his signature, and that he had signed said paper writing as a subscribing witness at the request of and in the presence of Albert Cannon, the Testator, and in the presence of H. W. Russell, the second subscribing witness, all present together, and that the said Albert Cannon, the Testator, signed and acknowledged said paper writing as and for his last Will and Testament in his presence, and in the presence of H. W. Russell, the second subscribing witness, all present together; and

In the absence of H. W. Russell, the second subscribing witness to said paper writing, who is now deceased, the said H. O. Hiteshew further testified that the signature of the second subscribing witness is the signature of and in the proper handwriting of H. W. Russell, and that the said H. W. Russell signed said paper writing as a subscribing witness at the request of and in the presence of Albert Cannon, the Testator, and in his presence, all present at the same time; and

That to the best of his knowledge and belief the said Albert Cannon, the Testator, was, at the time of signing said paper writing, of sound and disposing mind and memory, and that he knew of no reason why said paper writing should not be admitted to probate;

It is, therefore, ordered that the said writing be, and the same is hereby, admitted to probate and recorded as the last Will and Testament of the said Albert Cannon, deceased."

Cora Ann Cannon Abney, TheSanBernardinoCountySun, 8.18.1968

Obit for Cora Ann Cannon Abney, from her FAG memorial:

Cora Ann Abney went home to be with the Lord Jesus Christ. She passed away suddenly at her home in Apple Valley on October 15th, 2016. She was born on May 5th, 1948 in Montgomery, Alabama to her parents Carl and Barbara Cannon, whom she is now home with. She is survived by her sister Barbara Cannon-Clark, her children Michael Abney and his soon-to-be wife Amber Bouchard, son Richard Abney and his wife Kimberlee Abney, and her daughter Carolyn Godfrey and her husband Edward Godfrey. She was blessed with 5 grandchildren, and another one on the way. Carlos, Alyssa, Kacey, Ella and McKenzie. Cora adored her grand babies and they filled her with unmeasurable joy. She will forever be their guardian angel. Cora is also survived by her beloved fur babies Gracie and Willy of whom she cared for tremendously. She worked for the County of San Bernardino, Child Support division for the last 18 years with many friends and co-workers who loved her. She will be truly missed by all that knew and loved her dearly. She went above and beyond to be an amazing mother and to provide for her children. Gone too soon, but in the hearts of those who loved her.
