Charles had, in essence, two families with two wives. His first marriage, to Sarah J. Sadie Scott Campbell, gave the couple 5 children (Blanche, Ida, Fred, Edward and Archie.). Charles moved to Missouri, and remarried in 1898, to Fannie Belle Nixon Davis Cannon, and they have 4 children (Carl, Charles, Clarence, Claude).

As far as I can determine, none of the children from the first marriage moved with him to Missouri. Not even Archie, who was only about 10 years old when Charles moved.

I have no idea what happened to Sarah after Archie was born in 1888. All three of her children married in the Warren County area, so it implies to me that she, at least, stayed, or that she had family that raised her children in that area. Maybe she divorced Charles, and remarried? or never divorced, but died?

7/2021: I found that Charles and Sarah had another son, Archie Clyde Cannon, b. in Hale Twp., Warren County, IL, in 1888. Archie is listed as her 6th child. That led me to find other children.

Prof. Lovitt's singing class was not well attended Friday evening, bad roads perhaps being one cause and the concert at Smithshire another.

George Brent and Charles Cannon had a disagreement in relation to some of the covenants in a lease existing between them, and on Tuesday agreed to submit the matters involved to the decision of arbitrators. They selected Lem. A. Pendarvis, of Media, and John Reynolds, of Smithshire, who, on Monday, met at the latter place to hear and determine the matters in controversy and rendered a decision fairly satisfactory to both parties. This method of settling differences we think is as good and certainly cheaper than going to court.

Charles Cannon, Republican-Atlas, 3.6.1896

1903 Historical Encyclopedia of Illinois, Warren County, referring to the year 1884:

York Lodge No. 153, I. O. F., was instituted December 9, 1884, by some thirty members of the order from Monmouth and other neighboring towns. The lodge began with five charter members and four initiates. They were all on the list of first officers, and were: William Filler, Noble Grand; John W. Rowe, Vice Grand; A. E. Birdsall, T.; C. R. Copeland, C; George Adcock, R. S. V. C; F. W. Porter, S.; Casper Galloway, W.; Charles Cannon, R. S. N. G.; T.

I don't know what happened to his 1st wife, Sarah. Did she die? Divorce? Can't find anything on her, after the birth of Archie in 1888.

Charles Cannon, a former Warren county boy, now of Winston, Mo., has been visiting his old neighbors and friends in this county for the past few weeks. He left for his home in Winston last Monday after spending an enjoyable time here. His daughter accompanied him on the trip.

Charles Cannon, WarrenCountyDemocrat, 10.20.1898. I don't know which daughter this refers to – could be Blanche or Ida.

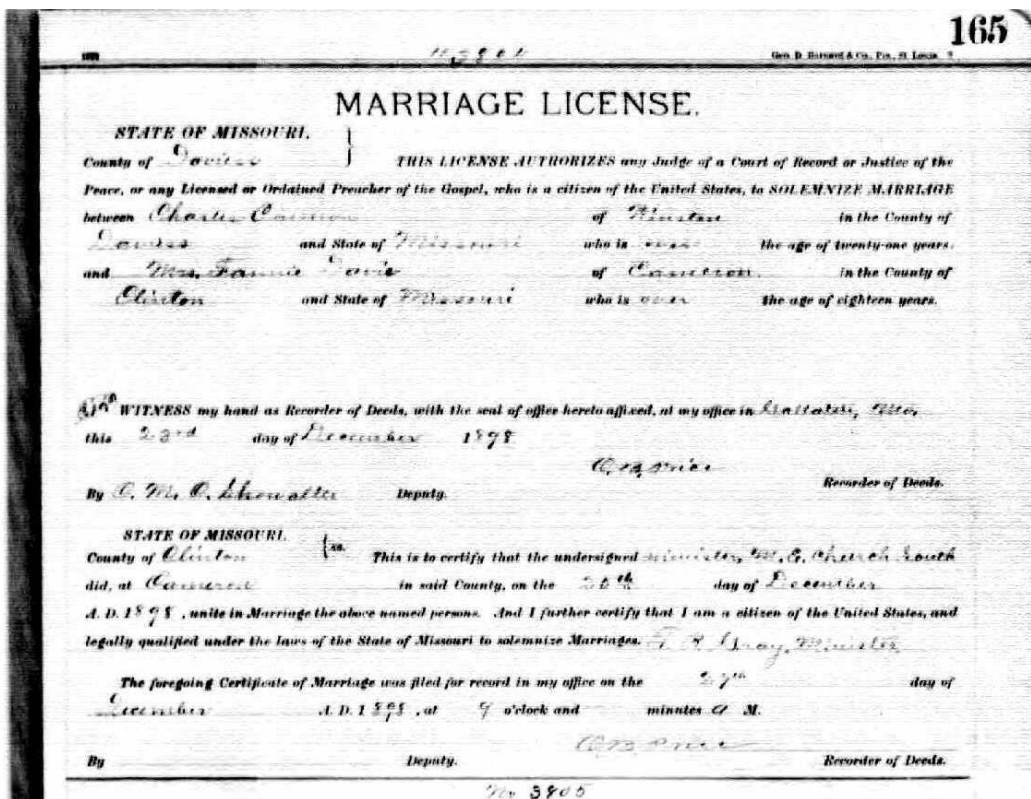

I think Sarah was still alive in 1896:

Fred Cannon returned from Missouri, Monday, where he has been visiting his father and mother.

Butte Man Dies While Driving Car

Sudden death from a heart attack came to Frederick H. Webb, 53, of 315 South Crystal, while he was driving his automobile four miles west of Whitehall at midnight Tuesday.

Mrs. Webb, who was in the front seat with her husband, quickly turned off the ignition key and grabbed the wheel of the car when her husband was stricken and averted an accident.

Mr. Webb, Butte district supervisor for the Northern Pacific Transport company, was en route home from Big Timber, where he had attended with Mrs. Webb the funeral of his brother-in-law, Thomas Jarrett, Tuesday.

Kyle Scott, Whitehall, Jefferson county coroner, who investigated the death, said that Charles Gowan, Whitehall high school student, who lives on a ranch five miles west of the town, and two companions were in a car following the Webb automobile. The boys noticed the Webb car weaving in the road and when it was stopped by Mrs. Webb, they also stopped and inquired if the Webbs were in trouble.

They took the body to Whitehall.

Mr. Webb was born in Big Timber, the son of pioneer Montana residents. He had spent his entire life in the state with the exception of service in France in World War I.

War I.

He worked for the Northern Pacific railroad in the engineering department prior to the war and after the war worked for the A. W. Miles Implement company in Livingston. In 1923 he returned to the NP engineering department and in 1933 joined the transport company. He was district supervisor in Missoula for four years prior to coming to Butte where he had resided four years.

He is survived by his wife, Hazel; three sons, Frederick Russell and Richard H., both of Butte, and Jack H. of Billings; two daughters, Madelyn Roseane, Butte; Mrs. Joyce Johnson, Seeley Lake.

Five brothers-in-law and six sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Bryan, Chefelah, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gates, Denver; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Adams, Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Heebner, Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Woodward, Greybull, Wyo., and Mrs. Doris Erickson of Louisville, Ky.

The body is at the Scott funeral home in Whitehall and will be forwarded Thursday to Missoula where funeral services will be held Saturday at 2:30 o'clock in the Squire-Simmons and Carr funeral home.

SMITHSHIRE BOY WRITES PARENTS

The following is a letter from Private Floyd B. Heichel son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Heichel of Smithshire. Floyd left here April 30 for Camp Dodge, later leaving Camp Dodge for Camp Merritt and sailing for overseas the week of August 1.

"Dear Folks: Will write you again to tell you the reason probably I never got any mail from you. It was because it was addressed wrong. It should have been the 35th Engineers instead of the 19 and 35, and the reason for this is that our Company commander gave us instructions. You see I belong to the 35th and the 19th has been sent somewhere else; so maybe our mail has been sent to them instead of here to the 35th.

I suppose you will get my other letter soon or perhaps at the same time as this. We have good eats here and my work is pleasing. I am in the same line I used to be at Rockford, only on larger machinery. 75 horsepower and up. I like the work fine. If I stay here until peace, I am going to see some of the larger places, like Paris, before returning. Haven't been paid yet but will between Monday and Wednesday. I never had better health in my life, no sore throat or any kind of an ache.

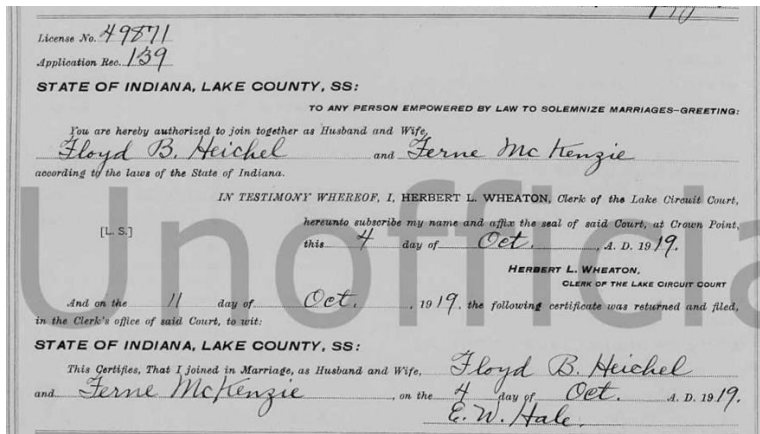

"When you write tell me all the news. About your crops, the car and how you all are. I saw an account of the new draft and what the age was but don't suppose they will ever see France. We have a good Y. M. C. A. here which handles smokes, candies, jam of all kind and lemonade.

"We are allowed to go to town until 9:30 each evening. We have a good bunch of men here and all work fast. Would like to tell you more about our work but can't that is our corresponding orders.

Fred Cannon stone, Center Grove Cemetery, Kirkwood, Warren, IL

This is an interesting story, added to ancestry.com by his granddaughter, Julia Icenogle:

He spent all his time with race horses and attending races. He had race horses. His last days were spent in Keosauqua, Iowa with his son, Guy and wife, Grace Cannon. He is buried in the cemetery in Kirkwood, Illinois - back towards the back of the cemetery along the road.

I, Julia Icenogle, his granddaughter, never did see him. He made no effort to see me. I assume that he and my grandmother were separated, although no one ever told me that.

They used to have a beautiful home in Washington, Iowa in the country which I believe was built by them. He lost that over the race horses and also another farm in Henderson County Illinois.

He was a very good looking gentleman. My cousins remember him as a nice person, but they were older than I.

Fred was on the 1880 census with his parents

Fred Cannon returned from Missouri, Monday, where he has been visiting his father and mother.

Lawrence Rice Commits Suicide This Morning While Under This Hallucination

PUT SHOTGUN AT HEART
 AND PULLED THE TRIGGER

Young Man Worked For Fred Cannon, Residing East of Media on Warren-Henderson County Line
 —Leaves a Bride of Only
 Two Months.

Claiming that his mother was calling him and that he must go to her, Lawrence Rice, while laboring under this hallucination, committed suicide this morning while at work on the farm of Fred Cannon south-west of Kirkwood and on the Warren-Henderson county line.

The young man committed the act shortly after 8 o'clock. A shotgun was used and from all appearances he placed the muzzle against his heart and pulled the trigger by means of a string which had been wrapped around the barb wire fence as a lever. Death was instantaneous. His lifeless body was first discovered by Mr. Cannon who saw the team running loose in the field and went over to investigate.

Coroner Hiatt of Little York was summoned and this afternoon he is holding an inquest.

Evidently a Suicide.

Friends of the young man are certain that it was a suicide. For some days he had been laboring under the impression that his dead mother was calling him and that he ought to go to her. By religion he was a Spiritualist.
 It is believed that while laboring under his delusion, he planned to take his own life and thus make it a reality.

This morning he went to a neighbor, Frank Dunn, and borrowed a shotgun, saying that he wanted to kill a dog. It was only a short time afterward that his body was found and he evidently returned to the field where he had been working, and at once took his own life.

Only Recently Married.

Mr. Rice was a young man about twenty-three years of age and came to Warren county about three years ago from Kentucky. Only two months ago he was married to Miss Georgia Du-poy, who came from near Kirkwood.
 His new bride is almost crushed by his act, for while she had been somewhat worried about his actions of late, still she did not believe that they would lead to suicide.

His employer, Mr. Cannon, lives in Warren county and he was working in Warren county when he took his life. His home was just across the line in Henderson county, however.

FARM SELLS FOR $580 PER ACRE

Washington, Ia., Oct. 14.—One of the largest land deals that has been made in this county was closed Saturday, when Joe A. Simerman became the owner of what has been known as the John Albert Maxwell farm just east of town, owned recently by Fred Cannon.

Mr. Simerman also purchased the Joe Link acreage adjoining on the northwest. The Maxwell farm is of 127 acres and the Link tract consists of 33 acres, making Mr. Simerman a farm of 160 acres.

Pays $580 an Acre.

The Maxwell place brought $580 an acre and the Link place $500 an acre, making the consideration approximately $90,000 for the whole acreage.

Real estate is beginning to move a little, anyway, and as soon as land goes to selling times will get good in Washington county, and not before. The Fred Cannon farm north of town sold yesterday to Bert Dill at $300 an acre for 200 acres. Mr. Dill bought it for his daughter from near Keota. It is a portion of the Alex Gibson farm, or rather the Will Gibson farm, and is a good one. And the same day the Jennings farm northwest of Ainsworth sold to Harry Dye at $225 an acre. It is the farm that belonged to Mrs. Jennings of this city.
