Betsy Cannon, 58, widow, keeps house, b. in KY

Elizabeth Cannon, 20, b. in MO (Moses Chewning's future wife)

Charles Cannon, 19, b. in MO

Notice that he is single, has a widow and her children living with him. This widow is the mother of his brother, Moses', future wife. Elizabeth Cannon and Moses, living on neighboring farms, marry later in 1870. Why would Betsy Cannon be living with James?? (Betsy Cannon is widow of Newbold J. Cannon)

James Madison married NJ and Elizabeth Cannon's granddaughter, Mary Elizabeth Thomas Fetters

While it took a while to sort out, we know that James Madison married the daughter of Benjamin and Mary Ann Cannon Thomas. Mary Ann Cannon Thomas was the daughter of NJ and Elizabeth Ann Beckner Cannon.

Mary Elizabeth Thomas Fetters, daughter of Mary Ann Cannon Thomas. Mary Ann died between 1860 and 1870. Mary Elizabeth lived for a time with her grandparents, NJ and Elizabeth.

Nita Chewning confirmed our suspicions that Mary Ann Cannon was indeed the daughter of NJ and Elizabeth. In an email she sent me 6/23/2008, she says that Mary Ann Cannon was the eldest of the children:

I got the information today that MARY ANN CANNON was NEWBOLD CANNON Jr. eldest daughter, on the 1840 census she is being listed as being between 5 and 10. She died in MO. a few months after her daughter Mary Elizabeth Thomas was born, from the story that Jim Chewning's wife was told by her mother or grandmother in law. Mary Ann Cannon/Thomas's husband left the baby with his in laws and went to the gold country he was never heard from again. He was found on a CA. census married to another Mary who was born in AR. about 4 years or so before Mary Ann Cannon was born. Do not know this Mary's maiden name yet. When my friend finds the information, (she may have left it in WA.) where her home is. She called me from Montana today and we talked of this. She is to send me the rest of the information as soon as she gets it. She said that she may have it in Montana, but will have to look through her genealogy material.

If this is correct, and Mary Ann was between 5 and 10 on that census, she was born between 1830 and 1835.

1850 census, District 48, Lewis County, MO

Benj. F. Thomas, 25, farmer, b. in MO,
Mary Ann Thomas, 20. b. in MO
Mary E., 5/12, b. in MO

Mary Ann Cannon Thomas died, as stated above, and her daughter, Mary Elizabeth Thomas, is shown living with her grandparents.

1860 census, Canton Twp., Lewis County, MO

NJ Cannon 51, farmer, value of real estate $1,600, personal property $1,500, b. in KY
Elizabeth Cannon, 49, b. in KY
William, 20, b. in MO
Martin L, 17, b. in MO
John, 14, b. in MO
Elizabeth, 11, b. in MO
Charles, 9, b. in MO
Mary Thomas, 10, b. in MO (NJ's granddaughter, the dau. of Mary Ann Cannon Thomas)
Ephraim Herrell, 28, farmer, b. in MO (son-in-law)
Amanthis Herrell, 29, b. in MO (NJ's married daughter)
Ellen Herrell, 2, b. in MO (grandchild)
Martha Herrell, 2/12, b. in MO (grandchild)

I show that Mary married John Fetters, 6/10/1870, but I can't find a source for that, other than other trees. The 1870 census fits with that marriage date.

1870 census, Jackson Twp., Clark County, MO

John Fetters, 24, farmer, value of personal property $250, b. in MO, parents of foreign birth, married within the year: June

Mollie Fetters, 21, keeps house, b. in MO, married in June

Keith Owen's tree shows that John Fetters d. 3/3/1874. There is a FAG memorial for a John Fetters in Saint Patrick's Cemetery, Saint Patrick, Clark, MO. Could very well be him.

So Mary is left a widow at 25 or so, with two little children.

According to the tombstone information above, and the fact that the 1900 census says they lost 4 children, 3 of those 4 could be Viola, Oscar L., and Emma C., all of whose tombstones say they died prior to 1900. Nita's information says that Jane Viola and Emma both died of snakebite (Jane Viola in June 1890, Emma in May 1900). Emma's obit says she died of typhoid fever.

Viola Jane Chewning, b. 5/6/1880, died. 6/21/1890.

Son Oscar L. Chewning, b. 4/16/1891, died 12/23/1891.

John Fetters d. just three days before Emma, on 5/24/1900.

Daughter Emma C. Chewning, b. 6/16/1886, died 5/27/1900.

So Mary has lost John Fetters, Viola Jane Chewning, Oscar L. Chewning, and Emma C. Chewning. This is re-stated in her obit.

John Fetters, a former Clark county boy, died very suddenly last week, in Camp Point, Ill.
 A daughter of James and Mary Chewning, aged 13 years, died of typhoid fever, Sunday, May 27. Funeral conducted by Rey. Burris, of Kahoka. at Ballard church. Interment at Ballard cemetery. NAOMI.

Land selling seems to be the order of the day. The heirs of James Chewning sold the place a few days ago to Tom Pearce and Jess Trent, the former taking the south part of the farm, and the latter the north part.

James Madison and Mary E Thomas Fetters Chewning land sold, ClarkCountyCourier, 2.14.1919

In essence, two daughters purchased their parents' land. Jesse Trent was a son-in-law, married to Luzena Chewning. Tom Pierce was also a son-in-law, married to Martha Ellen Chewning.

In 1933, Jesse and Luzena J Lue Chewning Trent will LOSE their land in Sec. 32, and it was sold at a sheriff's sale.

Aug. 1933

There's a notice in the Clark County Courier, dated 4/8/1933, of Exchange Bank vs. Lue Trent, note. I'm presuming the bank was going to have to foreclose on the Trents.

In Clark County, Missouri.

All lying and being in the said County, and State of Missouri, and I will, on Friday, the 8th day of December, A. D. 1933, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the South Court House door, in the City of Kahoka, County of Clark aforesaid, sell the same, or so much thereof as may be required, at public vendue, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand (subject to all prior liens and judgments), to satisfy said execution and costs.

H. H. HARDY,

Sheriff of Clark County, Mo.
(First insertion Nov. 17.)

This 1916 plat map shows Jas. Chewning land in Union Twp., Clark County, MO, that was sold after Mary Elizabeth Thomas Fetters Chewning's death, to her sons-in-laws, one of which was Jesse Trent.

I can't find them in 1940. I also don't have son Walter Lee Trent in 1940. Daughter Edna Eula Trent Koontz is in Prairie City, McDonough, IL, in 1940. Everett Clarkson Trent was in St. Mary's Twp., Hancock County, IL. No Effie, Floyd or Gladys.

Is this the correct Jesse? Age is wrong, but the right people on this census, when compared to 1930.

Ida B. Slater of Warsaw who sued saloonkeepers and brewers, for having sold liquor to her husband, settled the case for $350. The case gave promise of being hotly contested. The plaintiff had 122 witnesses subpoenaed, and the defendants also had many witnesses subpoenaed. Mrs. Slater claimed that she gave notice to the aforementioned saloons not to sell any intoxicating liquor to her husband. The defendants asserted they were authorized by Mrs. Slater to sell intoxicating drinks to her husband, they having received written notice from her that they be allowed to sell her husband such drinks.—Nauvoo Independent.

Wm. F. Slater.

William F. Slater of Vincennes, Indiana, died at his home in that city last Sunday morning, after an illness of several months. The funeral was held in Vincennes at eight o'clock on Monday evening, being in charge of the Modern Woodmen and Eagles of Vincennes. Rev. Dr. Wiley, pastor of the First Methodist church of that city delivered the funeral address. The remains were brought to Gibson City for interment, and brief services were conducted at the cemetery at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

William F. Slater was born Dec. 20, 1871 in Cynthiana, Ohio, and died April 29, 1923, aged 51 years, 4 months and 9 days. He came to Gibson City with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Slater in 1887. He attended school in this city and remained here until he was about twenty-five years of age. He was married at Kohoka, Missouri, to Miss Ida B. Chewing of that city on Feb. 27, 1900.

For the past fifteen years he and his wife had lived at Vincennes. He was an honored member of the Eagles and the Modern Woodmen of Vincennes. He was a man of sunny temperament and made warm friendships wherever he lived. About two years ago he underwent a surgical operation, which left him in a weakened condition, though he later resumed his occupation. His last illness lasted for several months.

There are left to mourn his loss his wife; his mother, Mrs. John Slater; a sister, Miss Margaret Slater; and a brother, Roscoe Slater, all of Vincennes. His father died in this city in 1904, and Will was laid to rest here by the side of his father. His wife, mother and sister, accompanied the remains to this city, returning to Vincennes yesterday. They were met here by a number of the old neighbors and friends of a bygone time.

The services at the Gibson City cemetery were conducted by Rev. Francis E. Smith of the Methodist church. The following citizens acted as pall bearers: Messrs. John Hollis, M. F. Yoder, John Pierpont, J. F. Stephens, J. W. Stevens and J. P. Lowry.

SLATER

Mrs. Ida Belle Slater died at Gibson City, Ill., March 23, 1928, at the age of 50 years, 4 months and 20 days.

Mrs. Slater was born near Antioch, Clark county, Missouri, Nov. 3, 1877, the second child of James M. and Mary Chewning. Her parents passed away a number of years ago, also three of the family of nine children.

She was married to William F. Slater, an electrician, at Kahoka, Feb. 27, 1900, who preceded her in death five years ago.

When about fifteen years of age she confessed her Savior and became a member of the Baptist church. She lived a clean, christian life and expressed herself as not afraid to go. Her life was worthy of her profession, for her convictions of right were strong and she faithfully tried to follow the path that seemed right. Although quiet and retiring in her disposition and habits she won the fullest confidence and respect of all who came to know her and she had many true friends. Until recently she was thought to be in good health but really her strong sense of duty kept her at her work when she should have been confined at home under the care of a physician. When she finally gave up her work she failed rapidly, despite all that could be done and a complication of trouble resulted in death.

In addition to her many friends and relatives of her husband, there remain of her own family, to mourn their loss, five sisters and one brother, as follows: Mrs. Luzina Trent of Neeper, Mo.; Mrs. Anna Carlin, Williamstown, Mo.; Thomas E. Chewning, Dallas City, Ill.; Mrs. Martha E. Pierce, Kahoka; Mrs. Georgia Jolliff, Moore, Montana; Mrs. Bertha Harr, Dallas City, Ill.

Burial was at Gibson City, Ill., beside her husband. ***

---

I put some time into why the couple was buried in Ford County, IL. It turns out that William's parents, John A. and Elizabeth Slater, were living in Drummer Twp., Ford County, IL, in 1900, and that father John is buried there. Also, William's mother, Elizabeth, was living in Vincennes in 1910 and 1930, with William's sister. It may be that Ida and William moved to Vincennes because of his family.
