Beginning in 2013, I had a series of messages via ancestry.com with a cousin researching her line from William Granville. She is Shirley Jean Chewning Harris, daughter of James Roy and Bertha Hill Chewning.

The following is a copy of those messages:

10/8/2013

Good morning. My names is Pamela Downes West, and my gr gr gr grandfather was Granville Washington Chewning, father of Moses William Chewning, grandfather of Theodore Chewning, gr grandfather of Letha Florence Chewning Downes, gr gr grandfather of Herville Finley Downes, and then me.

I have been working on the Chewnings for several years. I notice that you have found my tree at ancestry.com.

My dad and I have met with Keith Owen in Missouri. My dad was raised close to that area, and visited annually through the 30s and into the 1940s. Dad knew Aunt Annie, Uncle Vard (Keith's grandparents), along with Aunt Effie and others of the Chewnings.

We have made four or five trips to the area in the last few years gathering court documents, etc.

I have more to scan and post to my tree, which I hope to get to next year.

My tree is Downes/Chewning/Woodworth/Brakeman....or something like that:)

Pam, I am very glad to hear from you. I am the only living child of Roy Chewning and Bertha Hill. My dad died in 1968 at 75 and his father was Granville William Chewning and Ella Doak Wright. Dads mother died when he was 1 in 1894 and his grandfather was Granville Washington Chewning. Moses Chewning would have been dad's uncle brother of Granville William Granville, He died in 1905. We have traced back to Samuel Chowning changed to Chewning in Europe. Samuel came over here from Ireland and England. We also have talked to Sarah See in Missouri and her grandfather was John Henry Chewning which would have been my Dad's brother. I also have met him, Uncle Frank, Uncle John, Uncle Burton, and Aunt Addie visited our home when I was about 10 years old. I think you are down from the Mosses side of Dad's family but we are down from the Granville William side which is Mosses brother or my Dad's uncle. We have traced back to Samuel Chewning, Chowning which send you to Ireland and we think Samuel came here form Ireland. Sarah See side of the family are in Missouri where Granville Washington had bought several tracts of land on the Mississippi river side of Missouri. Samuel had a grandson which was Captain John Chewning which had my research stopped until we found he was a Captain. Sarah See and gone on back to the 1100 in her research as the Samuel Chowning name was called in England Chewning. You may run in to some of the Chowning name and that is why.

We love this and I had worked on this several years ago but quit because it was so hard and Ancestry was not as good as it is now. So I rejoined and have found more and more and run into more Chewnings. We are from Oklahoma as dad and Ralph his twin was born Indian Territory but Uncle Frank the all the other Chewning was born in Missouri of the Granville William and Ella Doak. Sarah said all her family and any Chewning they know are red headed. We are Dark Hair and Brown Eyes from my dad Roy and he had to add a name to join the army so he named himself James Roy Chewning. The census has it Roy but it is look like Ray Chewning & Ralph (twins) so that has made is real hard.

Go to our family tree Chewning Family Tree and ck it our. It is a change but we have about 11 generations in it counting my grandchildren so it is hard to print but I printed it our in pages and glued it together to just trace my Dad side up to Samuel Chewning. Sarah and I think that is the start of the Chewning in the United States. So see if you can get back to Samuel Chewning.

Let me Know and again it has been fun tracing back as we just wanted to know where and how did we get here.

Pam, I visited my parents grave site in Edna Kansas last month and we also went to the city hall to get a copy of the different plots where uncle Frank Chewning and his wife were buried. I knew about it but we are trying to find where William Granville Chewning (my dad' dad and his mother Ella Doak Wright Chewning are buried. We found that the family plot my Uncle Frank is buried was pd for by George H. Chewning brother to Granville Chewning and son of Granville Washington chewning. We are going to call the records lady in Edna, Kansas to see who else is buried there. But the George Chewning name on the plot was the owner of the plot but he is buried in Missouri. So my question is do you or your family have any reocord of this as Uncle Frank has a headstone but no one else and I know my parents knew he was buried by his wife years ago. Give me a note if that sounds like anything you might know about. My brother was wanting to put a stone there if it is right. Thanks Shirley Chewning Harris

Good morning, Shirley. Great to hear from you again. I haven't worked your line in-depth yet, so you are ahead of me. I don't know anything about the purchase of burial plots, but find it interesting that a brother in MO (George Hanvey Chewning) would purchase lots for his brother in KS. I've' been to where George Hanvey Chewning is buried (same place as my gr gr grandfather, Moses William Chewning).

Did you know that your grandfather's name is on a Civil War memorial in Monmouth, Warren, IL (which is the town in which I was born). Also, Granville William Chewning was married to Cordelia Phillips prior to his marriage to Ella Doak Wright. He apparently abandoned? her and his first family, remarried, and only much later did his first son become aware of this second family. The story was that she suggested he was a Confederate sympathizer to her friends....don't know, of course, about the validity of this, but he did have a prior marriage.

Have you any idea where Granville William and Ella are buried?

I have a lot to do on the Chewnings still, even though I feel like I've been working on them for years!

Pam

Shirley, if you will send me you email, I'll send what I have on your line.

Pam

SC

Yes, we think they are buried in the plot paid for by George Hanvey Chewning which is on the city records in Edna Kansas. We think Ella Doak was buried there in 1894 when my dad was 1 year old and cared for by his brother my Uncle Frank Chewning. My dad walked me over to an area where Frank his buried and told me that his mother and dad was buried there he thought. Uncle Frank has a stone and later after both my parents died Uncle Ralph dad's twin was buried by my brother in my mother and dad's family plot down from where Uncle Franks is buried which show's bought and pd for by George Haney Chewning which is my dad's uncle. The plot is for 6 and I think that family plot was full so Ralph was buried by my mother as he out lived all of them. Mother and dad's plot was under dad's name Roy Chewning Waiting to hear from you soon. I guess we could be considered gr gr gr gr gr cousins maybe.

Pam. We only have the same information on the owner of the burial plots as John Chewning We heard he was married before and she was pregnant we they parted but he did not know it. We were told they joined up with different armies. She remarried and raised the child under a different name than CHEWNING. This is really interesting. I also thought maybe the plot was paid for by one of Granville Washington's brothers. That would be an uncle as maybe he and his wife lost several children and babies Before my dad Roy Chewning was born. The more we learn the more confused I get.

Two persons were taken to the General hospital last night following the collision of two motor cars at Forty-sixth street terrace and Benton boulevard about 7:15 o'clock.

Harold Chewning, 26, of 3737 South Benton, the driver of one car, was treated for lacerations and released. Joseph Forester, 58, of 5831 Colorado street, driver of the other car, suffered a back injury.

Police said the car, southbound on Benton and driven by Forester, swerved into the northbound lane and collided with the Chewning vehicle.

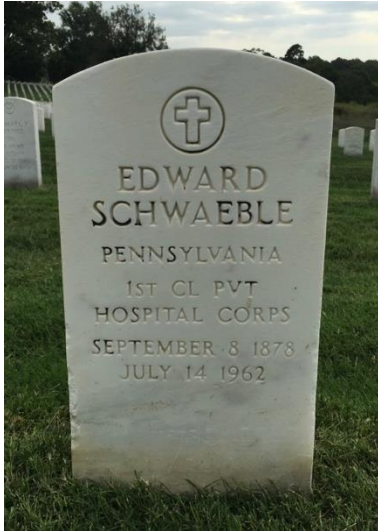

Sgt. Joseph Adelman, an officer in the school safety unit, was driving behind the Chewning car and swerved to avoid colliding with the cars. Adelman called police headquarters from his car radio and reported the accident.

O. Adkins, an engineer who has been very low for some months, was removed from his home here, to the Missouri Pacific Hospital at Nevada. W. B. Young, George Pinkley and Tom Foster members of the Masonic fraternity accompanied Mr. Adkins as did his wife.

Orris A Adkins, TheCraneChronicle, 11.27.1913

O. Adkins, who has been in a hospital at Nevada since early last fall, returned home Tuesday. He is considerably better but is not well by any means. It was not learned whether he intends to return to the hospital.

Orris A Adkins, TheCraneChronicle, 2.19.1914

O. Adkins returned, Monday, from a ten days visit with Mrs Adkins, who has been in a sanitarium at Bonner Springs, Kansas. He said Mrs. Adkins had regained her health and would be at home about the 15th of March. This will be good news to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Adkins.

O Adkins went to Kansas City Thursday of last week for a visit with Mrs. Adkins, who is still in a hospital there. She has recovered her health and will return home as soon as the weather becomes settled

Do You Remember?

Twenty years ago the Crane Chronicle tells of a train collision in the yards here, near the canning factory. On Thursday night when the redball from the south, which was running extra because of loss of rights, which was ready to leave for Carthage. Engineer O. Adkins, Fireman Filbeck and Conductor Robert Douglas were in charge of the train which struck the one standing. Engineer Murphy, Fireman Seaton and Conductor Jack Dyer were in charge of the other train. Vivian Bushnell, brakeman on the train that was hit, was in the caboose when he heard the approaching train, but succeeded in getting off and to safety before it was hit. Fireman Filbeck jumped from the engine but the engineer remained in the cab until he brought his engine to a stop, which was not until it had plowed its way through the caboose, demolished two coal cars and throwing another from the track. Neither the engine nor any of the cars of the approaching train left the track, nor was the train damaged to any great extent, save the front end of the engine. The road at this place descends a heavy grade into Crane, and the fact that a curve in the track just beyond the place where the wreck occurred makes it impossible for the engineer of an approaching train to see obstructions until he is close onto them, was responsible for the accident as it was impossible for the engineer to bring his train to a stop after he saw the other one in his way.

In January, 1891, on the very first day of the year, the Bonner Springs Sanitarium was organized, the object being to found an institution in which nervous diseases of all forms could be specially treated. A high elevation of land near Bonner Springs, overlooking the Kaw river, was selected as a favorable site for the beautiful stone structure which has since been erected for the purpose, a location which has proved satisfactory in every respect, the freedom from the city's dust, heat and bustle, with the pure, invigorating air and abundance of sunshine everywhere about, bringing rest, health and strength to the numerous patients here treated.

The Missouri State Hospital No.3, built in 1885, was commissioned and built by the state of Missouri making it the third hospital for the mentally ill. Throughout the years the hospital was used to treat the mentally ill but eventually also became a place where many dropped off their old and sick when they no longer wanted to take care of them. The Nevada State Hospital has gone by many names throughout the years. "The third state hospital," "Nevada state hospital," "Nevada state hospital no.3," and even the "lunatic asylum no.3". The hospital was shut down in 1991 and the main building destroyed in 1998, however many of the buildings are still standing and in use today.

Hy Wants to Make Speech

O. A. Adkins, better known as Hy, has been off duty as an engineer on the White River for the past few weeks, suffering from illness. However, he is much improved now and is able to be around town visiting with his friends. No one can understand why, but he is anxious to return to work. We understood, from a conversation within this office, Saturday, that he is looking for an invitation to make a speech at the encampment of Spanish-American War Veterans, at Reeds Spring some time next August. So far no one has asked him, but we understood that he was soliciting our support and influence in securing such an invitation for him. Hy is a veteran of that war, although he does not do much talking about it, and that's a queer attitude for a soldier to take, and hard to understand.

Death Takes Orris A. Adkins

Death, Sunday morning, claimed the life of Orris A. Adkins after a long illness that had confined him to his home for many years.

Mr. Adkins, commonly called Hi, was born June 14, 1878 at Hagarville, Ark., being 63 years old at the time of his death.

Mr. Adkins started railroading at the age of 17 on the Arkansas Division of the Missouri Pacific Railroad and worked for that company continuously until his retirement which came 6 years ago. In 1904 he came to Crane from the Arkansas Division as an engineer for the company and began running trains out of this terminal. Those were the early days for the railroad in this section. The line of the company into Arkansas, to connect this preset division with the Arkansas division, had not been completed. A gap in the line existed between Burgman and Cricket, but this was closed in 1906 and the road completed. At the time Mr. Adkins came to Crane the line ended at Branson. During his service with the company he took a part in all of the important developments of this division. He had a comprehensive knowledge of engines and readily shared this knowledge with his brother engineers in a whole hearted co-operative spirit, which caused him to be regarded as one of, if not the best, engineers on the division.

For the past 20 years Mrs. Lona Hays and her son, William Hays made their home with Mr. Adkins where they faithfully watched after him during all of his invalid years. During this time William grew from a small boy to manhood and has become an excellent citizen, due in a large part to the fatherly council of Mr. Adkins.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Presbyterian Church, where he was a member, by Rev. W. J. Willis, pastor, and the Masonic Lodge of this city. He was a member of all the Masonic bodies including the Shrine at Springfield. Burial was in the Masonic cemetery. Pall Bearers were his old friends, being Sam Wood, U. S. Routzong, Charles Richards, M. F. McNabb, H. G. Moede and J. N. Hix. Honorary pall bearers were Glenn Rieckman, Jim Marshall, Dave Walker, Ike Taylor, Charley Light, Fenton Williams, C. H. Lewers and T. P. Anderson.

Mr. Adkins is survived by four brothers and two sisters, all of whom attended his funeral, and his widow.

N. B.—Every item of information should be carefully supplied. AGE should be stated EXACTLY. PHYSICIANS should state CAUSE OF DEATH in plain terms, so that it may be properly classified. Exact statement of OCCUPATION is very important.

Grandson of Granville Washington and Mary Ann Hanvey Chewing

I am confused about Roy and brother Ralph's birth year. The OK State Vital Records index shows 1895. Roy's tombstone says 1895. Ralph's shows 1893. Several of Roy's documents show 1895 (WWII reg), but some also show 1893 (WWI reg). If their mother died in 1894, then they had to have been born in 1893. It's possible that the birth information was incorrectly entered as 1895, and they stayed with that as officially changing it can be very difficult.

I presume that Bertha and Roy are the couple on the right. This is what the caption says at ancestry: Bertha & Roy Chewning, Nellie Hill, George Hill, Ruby Hill and Laverne Hill. Grandma and Grandpa Hill of Edna Kansas

It's curious that Roy's stone has the wrong birth year – should be 1893.

Miss Velma Fern Jones Becomes Bride Of Roy L. Chewning In Beautiful Church Ceremony

Before an altar banked with fern, pedestal baskets of white chrysanthemums and seven-branched candelabra, in the First Baptist church of Sasakwa, Miss Velma Fern Jones became the bride of Roy L. Chewning.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones, south of the city, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chewning, Dixie Lease.

The wedding was an event of Friday, November 7, Rev. F. Clyde Aikman, pastor of the church, reading the double ring ceremony at 5:30 p. m.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. F. Clyde Aikman presented a program of nuptial music.

Miss LaRuth Wheeler, Wewoka, lighted the candles and sang "At Dawning" and "Because", accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Aikman.

The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white wool suit. She carried a white Bible, gift of the bridegroom, topped with tiny orchids and white satin streamers. She wore a shoulder-length veil which fell from a headdress of small white carnations.

Mrs. Lee Preston, Tulsa, was matron of honor for her sister.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jean Davis, Wewoka, and Mrs. Aubrey Smith, Tulsa.

Mr. Chewning served as best man for his son.

Ushers were Calvin Moose and Kenneth Jones, both of Wewoka.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

Following a brief wedding trip the couple will be at home in Ada.

For traveling the bride chose a brown tweed suit with brown accessories.
