Nita sent an email mentioning a letter from Bettie, in which Bettie expressed to her sister, Mary Frances Chewing Now, the hope that the Noes would move back to Union Twp. where the other family members lived, rather than go on to Oregon. The Noes had moved first to California, and then on to Oregon.

In the letter Bettie hoped that Mary Frances and her husband Will would send a likeness of their son, Johnny, back to Missouri. Johnny had been born in 1863 in Lafayette County, MO. The next child, David Samson (aka Leland S), was born in Lyon County, Nevada, in August, 1866. Probably the trip was commenced in early 1866.

There is a note on John W. Chewing's Bible, saying that it was a deathbed gift to him from Betsy Chewing. The opening page of this Bible has a note:

Within this Bible, he has written:

Betsy A Chearning departed this life January 27, 1867, aged 24 years, 8 months 27 days

Notice that the note on the outside of the Bible says it's from Bettie, and the death information calls a woman Betsy. The following information says she went by both Bettie and Betsy.

From Nita:

Notes for Elizabeth A. Chewning

As told by Ruth Eubanks, GGgrand daughter of Granville W. Chewning

Elizabeth was also known as Bettie and Betsy. She and her sister-in-law Margrett Missouri Jane were very close. They made a pact that which one died first would come back and tell the other how long she had to be on this earth.

*Elizabeth fell in love with a man of Catholic faith. Her family objected. Nevertheless, she made plans to marry him and made herself a wedding dress. Not able to stand the objections she gradually lost her good health and began to fade away. She died before the wedding could take place and was buried in her wedding dress.

Shortly after Elizabeth's death, Margrett dreamed that she was to measure the distance from her kitchen door to a place in the back yard. She was according to the dream to take the distance and apply a formula and that would tell her how long she had to live. Margrett would not do it.

Elizabeth was very religious, as written in her letter of September 1866. She knew that she had a debilitating disease. She had lost a lot of weight as the disease took its toll. She was determined that she would live in good health or not live. She felt like she was ready to leave this earth.

From familysearch.org, I found that he was b. in Saxony, Germany, in 1842.

Indebted to Granville's estate

Papers from Granville's estate show that Henrietta and her husband were indebted to the estate. While they are listed as heirs in the original administrator's bond, they are not included on subsequent land transactions with the other siblings. I have no way of knowing, but I wonder if they didn't sign away their portion of the estate in lieu of paying the notes they owed the estate.

Quoting Nita again:

"Money owed to Granville by Henrietta and husband, source of information was Ruth Eubanks. She wrote: You asked me a long time ago where I had gotten the info that Henrietta and husband had owned Granville Washington $900 when he died. I finally found it. It is on the Executor's or Administrator's Inventory, Certificate and Affidavit. They owed three notes. One was for $400, due March 5, 1872, one due April 5th, 1874, for $300, and one for $200 due April 5th, 1876. The paper was dated March 2, 1872, or 3 days before the first note was due. Notes on all borrowers and interest amounted to $1923.74. I now know where the paper is located."

Can't find their 1870 census.

I found a 1900 map of Cleveland County, OK, showing Louis' land 3 miles west of Norman:

—The construction of ex-Co-Tres. Anoil's new building is progressing very satisfactorily, and W. T. Tate is getting ready to commence his new building joining Mr. Anoil's on the west. It is promised that this Anoil-Tate block will be one of the handsomest in the city, rivaling the best of them for beauty. Mr. Ullman, who owns the lot west of H. Stubbeman's shop, is also getting ready to put up a 25x80 two-story brick block.

DIED: Died at her home in this city, last Wednesday morning, after a brief illness from Brights disease, the beloved wife of Mr. I. Ullman. She was not thought to be seriously sick and had only been ailing about one week, and her sudden death was a great surprise to the many friends of the family.

L. Ullman fell into a barber chair last Monday and called for a shave. The barber thinking he meant to have his whiskers trimmed instead of shaved off, asked him the second time to be sure he understood Mr. Ullman. A shave was what was called for and the barber proceeded to shear off a beard that had adorned Mr. Ullman's face for a number of years. The barber removed all of the hair from Mr. Ullman's face, save the mustache. After leaving the barber shop, Mr. Ullman met his daughters on the street and seeing that they did not recognize him, smiled and passed by. After the girls passed, one of them said to the other, "I wonder what old fool that was who was smiling at us." After a time, Mr. Ullman met his daughters again and the older one said, "I believe that is pa." but the younger one would not believe it and it took her quite a while to fully recognize her father. The other friends of Mr. Ullman passed him on the streets without recognizing him and they are still passing him. He is a greatly changed man in facial expression.

Remarriage to Calla Carrie

Through correspondence with Nita I knew that Louis remarried:

"Louis, Henrietta and their five children were in June or July, 1889 (I think she means to say OK). The run was April 22, 1889. On the 1890 census there was a column to record the length of time a person had been in the territory. All the Ullmans had 11 months in that column. If they had come in April, the census would have stated 13 months.

Louis was a farmer and had a claim about three miles west of town.

The only City directory on file in Norman, OK, Genealogical Society was 1908 – after Louis' death. The back section of the book has a rural directory and Leo Ullman and his step-son, Arthur Lewis, are both listed on Route 1. I suspect that Leo is on the homestead that Louis had originally.

After Henrietta passed away, Louis remarried and moved to another part of Oklahoma where he died of a suspicious nature, or thought to have been."

He married Calla Carrie Silcott Higgins. Using the information on the marriage license, I found her parents, and that her maiden name was Silcott (or Silkett). That's important later, because her daughter will be raised by Calla's mother at one point, and then her aunt.

Calla had a first marriage, to Loren D. Higgins, 12/22/1898, in Crawford County, KS.

Strikes Girls In Lawton

TOOK MORPHINE
AS TROUBLE REMEDY

Man Also Dead as Result of Overdose of Laudanum.

(By Associated Press.)

Lawton, Okla., Feb. 9.—Two working girls here yesterday evening took morphine with suicidal intent, one of them dying this morning. Her name is supposed to be Mabel Price, of School postoffice, Missouri. The other, Violet Cameron, will live. She claims to have come from Salem, Oregon. Lewis Ullman is dead as the result of an overdose of laudanum. It is not believed he intended suicide.

Louis Ullman, The Guthrie, OK, Daily Leader, 2.9.1903

Ullman Case.

The investigation into the cause of the death of Mr. Ullman recently is a reality and is still pending. Nothing definite has become known for publication. There are some suspicious circumstances, sufficiently suspicious in fact to make it seem necessary to Coroner Knee to fully investigate.

Some of the outside papers are quite sensational over the case.

Louis Ullman, obit, TheLawtonNews, 2.12.1903

* Death of Ullman.
L. Ullman, a formerly-of-Norman gentleman, died at Lawton, O. T. one day last week, and was buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery, Norman, on Tuesday. He died from an overdose of laudanum, taken to relieve neuralgic pains. He was a widower, well-to-do, (having some $10,000 of this worlds goods) and leaves two children, a son and daughter: both grown.

He had more than $10,000 of this worlds goods

Louis Ullman, obit, OklahomaCityTranscript, 2.12.1903. This came from Nita Chewning; the handwriting on the margin is hers.

Died at Lawton.

Louis Ullman, age 55 years, died at Lawton Sunday morning at 4 o'clock of rheumatism and other ailments. The body arrived here on the midnight train Monday night and was hurried at the Warren cemetery four miles west of town. Mr. Ullman was one of the Oklahoma pioneers, coming from Missouri in the spring of 1889 and purchasing a fine claim three miles west of Norman which he sold three years ago. He leaves a recently wedded wife, one son and three daughters.

Louis Ullman, obit, NormanDemocratTopic, Norman, OK, 2.13.1903

The body of Louis Ullman arrived in Norman from Lawton last Tuesday morning and was laid to rest in Warren cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Ullman had many friends in this county who will be pained to hear of his death. His son Leo and daughter was at his bedside when he died. The cause of death, as we learn, was an overdose of morphine taken for the purpose of relieving a dreadful pain in chest from which he was subject at times, and to relieve which we understand he had taken morphine on former occasions. He had not been well for sometime and drug proved too strong for him in his weakened condition and although he rallied from its effects never recovered. We learn also that he had married on last New Years Day.

BY ACCIDENT OR INTENT?

Suspicious Circumstances Connected with the Death of J. D. Ullman--Poisoning Case to be Investigated.

It was unsuspectingly given out that J. D. Ullman, who died Sunday, was a victim of an overdose of laudanum taken by mistake. He had been in the habit of taking the opiate to relieve his suffering which was due to stomach trouble. He is survived by a wife and four children. Interment to take place this afternoon in Norman, Oklahoma.

There seems to be nothing the least unusual in so simple a statement, but there are circumstances which Coroner Knee and probably County Attorney Cunningham will investigate, and possibly have the body brought back here for a post mortem examination. In the first place it seems that the remains were shipped out of town without the necessary death certificate.

The wife of the deceased is a young woman, while her husband was near sixty. Moreover, he had a large estate which will probably amount in the aggregate to $60,000.

He was married, it is alleged, to a Miss Silkett under rather strained circumstances. It seems he had reasons for not caring to be united with her. He was engaged to her, it was true, and a number of years ago a breach of promise suit for $10,000 brought him to the issue.

Now it becomes no newspaper to make any statement that shall reflect upon the character of any woman, no matter what her past history may have been. Yet the circumstances of this case will unquestionably be inquired into, for in the event that the man died without leaving a will, his widow becomes heiress to one-third of his estate. Were this the case, the wife of the deceased would have some $20,000 of his property.

The question is now raised as to who administered the poison and through what motive. Before the matter can be satisfactorily cleared up, it will be necessary to establish that Ullman had been in the habit of taking the opiate to relieve his suffering, and again, to prove conclusively that the drug was taken at his own volition.

The couple formerly lived in Norman. They moved to Lawton from Sterling. Here they resided in the house next to the Talley cottage on Avenue B. Mrs. Ullman came with her mother to Oklahoma from Iowa.

Louis Ullman, obit, LawtonWeeklyEnterprise, 2.13.1903

Ullman's Death Was Suspicious.

A dispatch to the Oklahoman from Lawton says that since the death of Lewis Ullman, which occurred Sunday as the result of an overdose of laudanum, the circumstances occasioning the death are to be looked into by Coroner Knee and County Attorney Cunningham. It appears that the remains of Ullman were hurriedly shipped to Norman without a death certificate. Foul play is suspected.

Ullman was the owner of an estate worth about $60,000. He was married but a short time ago under rather strained circumstances to his young wife. He had been engaged to her for some time but did not care to marry her and was sued by her a few months ago for $10,000 for breach of promise. This brought on the marriage.

"Whether his wife had a hand in the death is to be investigated, continues the dispatch, and the authorities at Norman have been wired to disinter the body for further examination."

The officials here, however, have received no word from Lawton and it is probable nothing further will be done concerning the matter.

POISONING CASE TO BE INVESTIGATED

Suspicious Circumstances of Ulman's Death.

TOO MUCH LAUDANUM

Coroner Will Have Body Returned for Examination.

Lawton, O. T., Feb. 12.—It was unsuspectingly given out that J. D. Ullman, who died Sunday, was a victim of an overdose of laudanum, taken by mistake, says the Enterprise. He had been in the habit of taking the opiate to relieve his suffering, which was due to stomach trouble. He is survived by a wife and four children. Interment took place this afternoon in Norman, Oklahoma.

There seems to be nothing the least unusual in so simple a statement, but there are circumstances which Coroner Knee and probably County Attorney Cunningham will investigate, and possibly have the body brought back here for a post mortem examination. In the first place it seems that the remains were shipped out of town without the necessary death certificate.

(Wichita, Kan.) 13 Feb. 1903
Chronicling America:
Historic American Newspapers.

The wife of the deceased is a young woman, while her husband was near 40. Moreover, he had a large estate which will probably amount in the aggregate to $50,000.

He was married, it is alleged, to a Miss Silkett under rather strained circumstances. It seems he had reasons for not caring to be united with her. He was engaged to her, it was true, and a number of years ago a breach of promise suit for $10,000 brought him to the issue.

Now it becomes no newspaper to make any statement that shall reflect upon the character of any woman, no matter what her past history may have been. Yet the circumstances of this case will unquestionably be inquired into, for in the event that the man died without leaving a will, his widow becomes helpless to one-third of the estate. Were this the case, the wife of the deceased would have some $20,000 of his property.

The question is now raised as to who administered the poison and through what motive. Before the matter can be satisfactorily cleared up, it will be necessary to establish that Ullman had been in the habit of taking the opiate to relieve his suffering, and again, to prove conclusively that the drug was taken at his own volition.

The couple formerly lived in Norman. They moved to Lawton from Sterling. Here they resided in the house next to the Taley cottage on Avenue B. Mrs. Ullman came with her mother to Oklahoma from Iowa.

Another clipping, from the Norman Transcript, Feb. 12, 1903:

Lewis Ullman, a formerly of Norman gentleman, died at Lawton, OK, one day last week, and was buried in the Odd Fellows Cemetery, Norman, on Tuesday. He died from an overdose of laudanum, taken to relieve neuralgic pains. He was a widower, well-to-do (having some $10,000 of this worlds goods) and leaves two children, a son and a daughter, both grown.

Note: he had another daughter, Hannah, who died in 1892.

FUNERAL HELD UP, POST MORTEM IS PERFORMED

DEATH OF ATTORNEY C. B. HAR-
BOLD AT PONCA CITY A MYS-TERY TO RELATIVES.

What Was at First Believed to Be a
Suicide May Develop Into a Murder of a Former Resident.

Funeral services for C. H. Har-rold, a prominent young attorney of Ponca City, Okla., who was found dead with a bullet wound in his forehead in his office at that place
Thursday noon, was held up at Bray-mer Sunday afternoon and the body brought to this city where a post mortem was held on the body. The body was first taken to the office of Grace, Simpson & Grace, where an X-ray, was taken to locate the bullet.
The body was then removed to the Meinershagen undertaking parlors where the post mortem was held and the bullet removed from a point just above the right eye. The body, which was accompanied by E. P.
Michaels, a Braymer undertaker, and relatives and friends of the deceased, was returned to Braymer Sunday night and funeral services held at that place Monday afternoon. Burial was made in Carroll county.

Harrold, who was 31 years old was Harrold, who was 31 years old, was found dead in his chair in his office Thursday during the noon hour. Near the body lying on a chair was a German derringer revolver, a bullet from which caused the attorney's death. The post mortem held here Sunday night showed a fractured skull as though the young man had been hit with a blunt instrument.

Friends of the young man at Ponca City where he had resided for a number of years were of the opinion Harrold committed suicide, although no cause for such act could be ascertained. He was a prominent young man of that place and was fast working up a large law practice. It was reported he was soon to have been married to a young lady in Ponca City. J. H. Harrold, father of the dead man, accompanied the body to Braymer for burial. He could not believe that his son took his life and Sunday shortly before time for the funeral had the services postponed until Monday afternoon and brought the body here for a post-mortem. The father now feels confident that his son was murdered.

Young Harrold was born southeast of Ludlow and went to Oklahoma several years ago. He has a large acquaintance near Ludlow and Braymer.

Mr. and Mrs. Aiken's motor trip included the Carson City pleasures of playing slot machines in sharp contrast to the rural delight their sons took in milking cows. They returned in time for Mrs. Aiken to act as matron of honor at the marriage of Miss Gladys Ullman to Mr. Rodney Lee yesterday in Gardena. Mrs. Aiken and Mrs. Lee are teachers at Fries avenue school.

J. S. Kabrich and wife are late arrivals from Oklahoma. They are at the Glenrock temporarily. Mr. Kabrich has bought lots 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, east of the Plaza Hotel and has already begun the erection of a residence. As soon as his residence is completed he tells the editor of the News that he will begin building a grain and feed store, and later will sink a well on his property, and if he is successful in getting plenty of water he will make the town a proposition to furnish water to the general public, or maybe put in a water works system.

PICNIC FOR THE FOURTH

The public meeting called to meet at the office of Mechem and Davidson Saturday afternoon disposed of the water question, talked about roads and decided to pull off an old fashioned basket picnic at the Blue Water Holes on the Fourth of July.

Contract was let to J. S. Kabrich to furnish water to the public at $150.00 per year. A committee of five was appointed to consult all parties interested and to go before the County Commissioners on the question of opening a road South from Tucumcari toward Dodson and Quay, west of Tucumcari mountain and through what is known as Robinson's school section, and this matter has already been disposed of.

Son Willis died from accidental gun shot

Clarinda's 1900 census shows that she had 4 children, only 2 living. Margaret has passed away prior to 1900, it appears. What about James? He appears to be gone, also. I think the John in the article below was Willis Chewning, or the article is incorrect, and it should have said Willis, not John? Anyway, Clarinda's 1910 census shows 4 children born, 1 living, which would make sense if John/Willis is the same person.

Near Kahoka, Mo., Yesterday Afternoon by the Accidental Discharge of a Shotgun.

Kahoka, Mo., Nov. 18.—John Chewning accidentally killed himself yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock by the explosion of a shotgun.

Chewning was standing on a log at William Eiwel's poultry house at Antioch, when the gun slipped out of his hand, striking the log in such a way as to cause the gun to explode, emptying the charge of shot into his stomach.

Chewning was the son of George Chewning, of Antioch, and was 19 years of age. He died before medical aid could arrive.

Kahoka, Mo., Nov. 18.—John Chewning accidentally killed himself yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock by the explosion of a shotgun.

Chewning was standing on a log at William Elwell's poultry house at Antioch, when the gun slipped out of his hand, striking the log in such a way as to cause the gun to explode, emptying the charge of shot into his stomach.

Chewning was the son of George Chewning, of Antioch, and was 19 years of age. He died before medical aid could arrive.

He was standing on a log when he lost his footing and the trigger of the gun caught in his clothes. A discharge of the weapon followed.

Willis Chewning, of Antioch, Clark county, and brother of Rev. E. W. Chewning of this city, was accidentally killed near his home last Monday, while out hunting. He lost his footing and the trigger of the gun caught in his clothing discharging the gun. Rev. Chewning has the sympathy of his many friends here in his bereavement.

Willis W Chewning, obit, TheLaBelleStar, 11.28.1902

A Sad Accident.

Willis, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chewning, of near Antioch, accidentally shot himself, Monday about 11 o'clock while hunting rabbits with his cousin Spencer. The charge from a shot gun, took effect just to the left of the groin and ranged upward causing instant death. Presumably the gun was discharged by slipping off the log on which the unfortunate boy was standing. The cousin heard the report, but some five or ten minutes passed before it was ascertained that the shot was accidental and fatal. Next day deceased would have been nineteen years of age. His parents and one brother survive and have the heartfelt sympathy of all. Interment in Antioch Cemetery, Nov. 18.—Kaboka Gazette-Herald.

Mr. Chewning who was killed was a nephew of Park Wilson of this city.

I haven't been able to find their marriage cert, which would probably be 1873-1874. I also can't find George Hanvey Chewning's marr. cert, which was probably about the same time. Suggests there are missing records in Clark County.

Daughter Rosezettia was b. 4/1874, in Missouri.

Son Everard William Billie Chewning was b. 4/21/1876, in Santa Cruz, Santa Cruz, CA.

Stephen apparently moved to CA prior to Billie's birth. Sister Mary Frances Chewning Noe and family were living in Santa Cruz at this time.

Mrs. CAROLINE GIBSON

Mrs. Caroline Chewing Gibson, daughter of Michael and Clara Bergman was born in Clark county, Missouri, on the Joe Hassler place, March 27, 1855. She departed this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Gollither in Kahoka, Missouri, June 11, 1939, at 2:25 p. m., aged 84 years, 2 months and 14 days.

She was united in marriage in Febuary, 1874 to Stephen H. Chewing. Two children, Mrs. Rosa Gollither and E. W. Chewing were born to this union. Both reside in Kahoka and survive to mourn her loss. She was foster mother to Francis M. Lough.

Her husband, Mr. Chewing died in 1885, and in 1888 she married Wm. Gibson, who lived only a short time. Because of the short duration of this marriage she was usually known as Mrs. Chewing.

She was baptized into the Catholic church in childhood and was loyal to her church all through life.

She was preceded in death by one sister and four brothers, Mary, Frank, John Peter and Christopher Bergman, one brother, Charley Bergman survives. She is also survived by four grandsons, Virgil, Charles, Paul and Joseph Chewing and two granddaughters, Roselee and Margaret Chewing, who with many nieces and nephews are greatly devoted to her.

She has lived with her daughter, Mrs. George Gollither and family, Hubert and Leonard Gollither for the last four and a half years.

They have been constant in their care and devotion to her, as has her daughter-inlaw, Mrs. Linnie Chewing.

She was constant in her care of the sick. A good neighbor and helper in every time of need.

Sh was patient in her suffering, which was long and difficult. But she was ready for her release and anxious to go to her heavenly home.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 a. m., Tuesday, June 13 in the St. Michael Catholic church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Edward Purcell.

The pallbearers were Patrick and William Graham, Lewis Schmid, Tom Dunning, John Dunning and Ossie McLaughlin. Burial was in the Kahoka cemetery.

(Licensed Embalmer's Statement on Reverse Side)

Mrs. Rosa Gallup married Mr. George W. Gollieher 1/12/1913. Charles C. Gallup died 1912, is buried in Kahoka Cemetery. Rosa died in 1947, and is buried as Rosezettia A. Gollieher (1874-1947) in the same cemetery. There is a picture of her grave online, Gollieher, not Gallup.

George Gollieher died in 1939, and is buried in a plot with a tombstone with his first wife (who died in 1911), also at Kahoka Cemetery.

Anyway, Rosa Chewning Gallup married her next door neighbor – Gollieher - who was also widowed.

Nita's genealogy says that Caroline Short married Stephen Chewning, but the death certificate information stating Caroline's maiden name was Bergman is accurate. I found her on an 1860 census with Michael and Clara Bergman (along with brothers Christopher, Mark, an infant brother, and sister Mary), the same people listed as her parents on her death certificate. (note: transcription has their last name as Benjamon on the 1860 census). The 1870 census says Benjman, so perhaps the Bergman on the death cert and the 1910 census was inaccurate.

The 1870 census for Caroline's family lists the following people:

Michael 50, Clara 41, Christoph 22, Frank 17 , Caroline 15, Mary 12, Charles 19, and John 8. The first one born in US was Caroline.

On the same census page is John Chewning, and his family. Perhaps living close to Stephen's brother is how Caroline met him.

There's a Mary Ann Short on the same 1870 census page as Caroline Benjman and her parents. This Mary Ann Short is the correct age and from the same birth state to be the Mary Ann Short on the 1880 census with Stephen and Caroline Chewning, where she is listed as housekeeper.

"Wm. Thomas Rose Chewning" was the caption on this photo I received 8/2017, from Orin Rockhold.

Pamela ... not sure that this got sent? Thomas married Rosa July 29, 1889, Clark County, Missouri. Rosa's mother Caroline Gipson gave consent, Rosa was under 18 years of age. Thomas dies July 29, 1941, in Graphic, Crawford County, Arkansas. Thomas followed his brother John Alfred to Arkansas.

I finally started my family tree on Ancestry, you should look at it!

Friend, NE, was on the Burlington and Missouri Rail Road line, which also ran through Clark County, MO, so perhaps this was a wedding trip the couple took (if it is them. I can't verify it in anyway, other than taking Orin Rockhold's word).

8/2023: When I found Caroline Bergman Chewning Gipson's obit, which was dated 6/11/1939, in the Clark County, Gazette, I saw she was the foster parent to Francis Marion LOUGH.

She was united in marriage in February, 1874 to Stephen H. Chewning. Two children, Mrs. Rosa Golliher and E. W. Chewning were born to this union. Both reside in Kahoka and survive to mourn her loss. She was foster mother to Francis M. Lough.

Caroline Bergman Chewning Gipson, obit, ClarkCountyCourier, 6.16.1939

Rosa's marriages

Rosa's story: Rosa married the first time at the age of 15, 7/30/1889, to Thomas William Rockhold, with her mother, Caroline Gipson's permission.

Rosa married the second time as Miss Rosa Chewning to Charles C. Gallup, 5/8/1896.

Rosa married the third time 1/12/1913 to George W. Gollhier, widower of Mollie Gallup Gollhier, Rosa's second husband's wife. She married her former brother-in-law.

Got it – Mrs. Rosa Gallup married Mr. George W. Gollhier 1/12/1913. Charles C. Gallup died 1912, is buried in Kahoka Cemetery. Rosa died in 1947, and is buried as Rosezettia A. Gollhier (1874-1947) in the same cemetery. There is a picture of her grave online, Gollhier, not Gallup.

Anyway, Rosa Chewning Gallup married her next door neighbor, who was also widowed.

This is important: Rosa also lists her birthplace as California (1900 census, she says she was born in CA April 26?, 1874). On the 1910 census, she lists her birthplace as Missouri.

On the 1930 census, Rosa Gollhier says her first marriage was at the age of 15, which would support the marriage certificate that says she married, with her mother Caroline Gipson's consent, under the age of 18, to Rockhold.

Through following the Gallup census records, I think that Charles Gallup's baby sister was Mary J (Mollie), born in 1880, and she married George W. Gollhier. Mollie died a year or so before her brother, Charles Gallup. Then the neighbors/in-laws, Rosa Chewning Gallup and George W. Gollhier married.

Rosa's story: Rosa married the first time at the age of 15, 7/30/1884, to Thomas Rockhold, with her mother, Caroline Gipson's permission.
