In the case of Lydia Beckner vs. Henry Beckner, divorce, a verdict was brought in yesterday afternoon. The case had been on trial for four days. Within an hour after the case was given the jury they returned with a verdict for the complainant. The case was fiercely fought on both sides.

Henry Clay Beckner, divorce, WarrenCountyDemocrat, 1.24.1895

The January term adjourned Saturday afternoon. The term was only three weeks long but longer than was thought at first it would be. New trial motions in the divorce case of Lydia Beckner vs. Henry Beckner was overruled. The complainant was granted a decree and given custody of minor children.

Henry Clay Beckner, divorce, WarrenCountyDemocrat, 1.31.1895

The Youngstown case is still on trial before Judge Turnbull in the county court room. The case has grown out of the Beckner divorce suit. Mrs. Beckner in this case charged her former husband with four others, Gilbert and Andrew Johnson, W. M. McBride and Edward Soule, with disturbing peace in the neighborhood on the night of May 22. It is an unfortunate affair and ought never to have been dragged into court. We understand the trouble has split the Youngstown neighborhood wide open. It has drawn the community into factions in church and society. It can't be said now when the trial will end.

Henry Clay Beckner, divorce, WarrenCountyDemocrat, 6.27.1895

Henry Beckner was fined $25.00 and Edward Soule $5.00 for disturbing the peace. Gilbert Johnson and W. M. McBride, the other two defendants, were dismissed by the states attorney. The case will be remembered as the one from Youngstown, which has engendered a great deal of bad blood among conflicting parties. It is to be hoped now that the trouble is all over. The case occupied several days in Judge Turnbull's court last week.

I found an obit for Henry Clay Beckner in the Monmouth Library when I was doing research there April, 2011. It's clear that it is for the Henry C. in the 1850 census record. I think this Beckner will tie into Bonita Tarr Chewning's family (Uncle Herville Chewning's wife). From the last comment in the obit, there would be more of interest to read in the actual newspaper article. This was just a transcription.

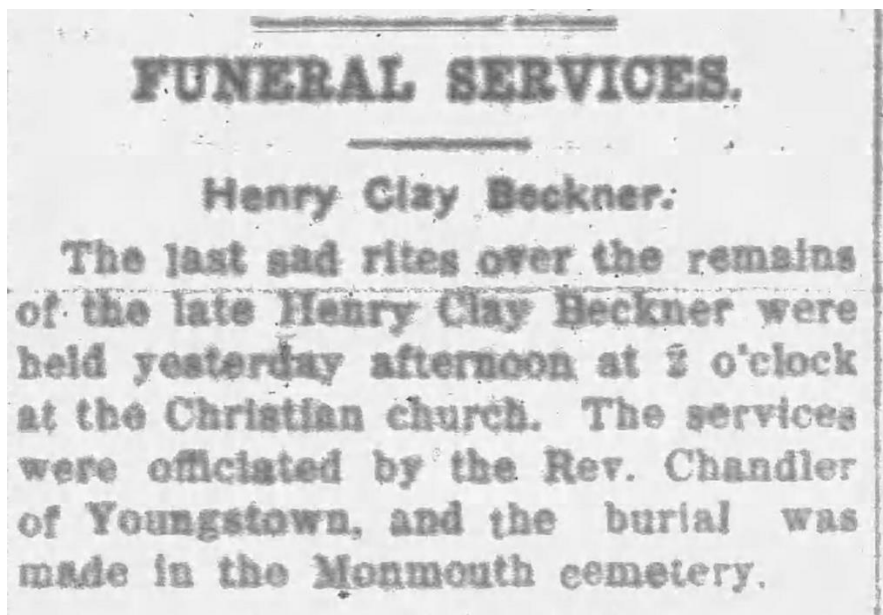

HENRY C. BECKNER - October 18 and 29, 1909

After a long illness of several months, Henry Clay Beckner, one of Warren County's old settlers, died at 12:30 yesterday in the Monmouth hospital where he was taken several weeks ago in hopes that something could be done for him. His illness was due to internal troubles which together with his old age were the cause of his death.

Mr. Beckner was born in Kentucky, March 10, 1849. His parents died when he was two years old, and a few years later he came to Warren county and settled near Youngstown. He lived here for many years until about thirteen years ago when he came to Monmouth and has been employed in Plant No. 1 of the Western Stoneware since that time. He has three children living; Earl C. Beckner of Youngstown, Ernest L. Beckner of Roseville and Mrs. C. L. Blair of Youngstown.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Christian church, with Rev. Chandler of Youngstown in charge. Interment will be made in the Monmouth cemetery. (20th) (description of funeral)
